Councilman Haynes introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, it appears from the tax rolls of the City of Austin that there was assessed against Ed H. Taylor for city taxes for each of the years 1912, 1913, and 1914, the certain item of credit amounting to $7500.00; and

WHEREAS, said Ed H. Taylor is now deceased, and Mrs. Zona Taylor, his surviving wife, has made and presented to the City Council her sworn statement that within her personal knowledge said Ed H. Taylor owed the Austin National Bank and other parties more than $7500.00 during each of said years; and

WHEREAS, it has become evident to the City Council from such facts that said Ed H. Taylor was entitled in law to offset his debts in said amount against his credits as assessed for said years, and therefore, that such assessments as to such credit was erroneous, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN:

That the assessments against said item of credit of $7500.00 for each of said years against said Ed H. Taylor be stricken from the tax rolls for the respective years, and the City Assessor and Collector of Taxes is hereby instructed to correct said rolls in each of said respects, upon the condition, however, that the estate of Ed H. Taylor, deceased, pay all taxes otherwise due the City of Austin for the years of 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917 and 1919, together with all interest and penalties that has accrued thereon.

The above resolution was adopted by the following vote: Ayes, Mayor Yett, Councilmen Avery, Haynes, Nolen and Searight, 5; naves, none.

The petition of J. H. Harris and others, protesting against a skating rink being erected at 1106 East 13th Street was read.

Councilman Haynes introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, it appears from the records of the Assessor and Collector's office that the improvements, consisting of a small box house built in 1885 on 50x122 feet of Outlot 61, Division "D", were rendered by the owner, Green Alexander, at a valuation of $50.00, and notwithstanding the Unit System slip does not show any improvements on said lot, the Board of Equalization placed the valuation at $395.00; and

WHEREAS, said improvements, as per statement of the owner, are in a dilapidated condition and have not been occupied for any purpose for the past five years and are fully assessed at the value of $50.00, as rendered by him,

Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN:

That the Assessor and Collector be and he is hereby instructed to correct the assessment on his rolls for 1924 and take credit for amount of reduction.

The above resolution was adopted by the following vote: Ayes, Mayor Yett, Councilmen Avery, Haynes, Nolen and Searight, 5; naves, none.

Councilman Haynes introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, it appears from the records of the Tax Assessor and Collector's office that a clerical error was made in transcribing from the Unit slip to the Register the unit valuation of $185.00 for taxes of 1924 on Lot 1, Block 7, Outlot 47, Division "O" Riverside Addition, owned by Mrs. L. P. Clark and erroneously placing same at $325.00,

Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN:

That the Assessor and Collector be and he is hereby instructed to correct said assessment on his records and to take credit for $140.00, amount of reduction in the valuation, to accord with Unit System figures and correct value of the property in line with valuation placed on surrounding lots.

The above resolution was adopted by the following vote: Ayes, Mayor Yett, Councilmen Avery, Haynes, Nolen and Searight, 5; naves, none.

The Council then adjourned.
