"Austin, Texas, November 23, 1925.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council,
City of Austin, Texas.

Gentlemen:

The Board of Equalization makes the following report to your Honorable Body.

We have adhered to the Unit System's figures as a rule, lowering values in a few instances, raising the same in others, especially on the ground.

We have examined the new improvements very carefully and, after making measurements, etc., placed what we considered proper values on same, taking such pains to prevent anything that can be called favoritism or discrimination.

In doing this, we looked into the record of permits taken out. We found a large number of residences erected in the year 1924 for which no permits were on record. Carefully considered proper valuations on same. If the owner of the lot could be found, notice was sent; otherwise they were assessed as OWNER UNKNOWN.

In this connection, will state the total assessed valuation amounts to about $85,000.00. This amount is, of course, in addition to that found by permits. This might be better expressed as "pick ups".

The Board calls attention to excellent help rendered by the entire force in the Assessor's office.

Very truly yours,

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

By (Sgd) W. A. Pillow, Chairman.

(Sgd) E. J. Barkley

(Sgd) Simon Gillis,

Members. "
