"Austin, Texas, June 19, 1930.

Mr. Adam R. Johnson,
City Manager,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I wish to report that application for a permit for the construction of a shooting gallery at Riverside Amusement Park located south of the Barton Springs Road has been filed with this department by Mr. M. H. Crockett. He proposes to construct gallery in accordance with the plan submitted herewith. I have made an inspection of the building site and have examined the plan and recommend that the permit for construction and operation of the gallery be granted, provided that Mr. Crockett shall employ a competent attendant to be on duty at the shooting gallery at all times while the same is in use. In the event the attendant is required to leave the shooting gallery he shall place all guns and ammunition in a drawer beneath the counter constructed purposely for this use; and also, provided that no gun larger than 22 calibre and no ammunition larger than "22 shorts" shall be used at the gallery.

Respectfully submitted,

(Sgd) G. S. Moore, Building Inspector.

Approved:

(Sgd) R. D. Thorp,
Chief of Police.
