Mayor Wooldridge offered the following resolution:

Whereas Robert W Walling made application to the City Council through Councilman D B Gracy, for credit of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) against the three thousand dollars ($3,000) of vendors lien notes assessed against him as of January 1st 1909; and,

Whereas said application was lost or mislaid by Councilman Gracy; and,

Whereas satisfactory proofs have been submitted to us ^{that} said R W Walling was entitled to the credit of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) as claimed; and,

Whereas said R W Walling desires to pay the taxes legally owing upon the vendors lien notes actually owned by him on January 1st 1909, and has tendered payment of the same without the interest and penalties charged against him by reason of a failure to pay said taxes more promptly, which failure was caused by no fault of his; therefore,

Be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Austin:

That the interest amounting to ~~25~~ 25% and the penalty of 5%, amounting to $1,50, by reason of said dereliction, be, for the causes hereibabove stated, remitted.

The resolution was adopted by the following vote:

Yeas Mayor Wooldridge, Councilmen Bartjolew & Powell 3

Absent excused Councilmen Gracy & Hart 2

On motion the Council recessed, subject to call of the Mayor.
