"Austin, Texas, March 10th, 1921.

Hon. W. D. Yett, Mayor,
Charles Alford,
J. W. Graham,
Harry L. Haynes, Commissioners:
Jno. S. Ward,

Gentlemen:

We beg to report to your honorable body that we were appointed a Committee by the South Austin Improvement League by Resolution on March 8th at a regular meeting of the League at South Austin Fire Hall, to ask that you purchase the South half of Block 18, Swisher's Addition to Austin, for a City Park.

We beg to state further that three sites were presented and fully discussed and considered, namely:

1st: The plat of ground at the head of the ravine in Fairview Park immediately east of the B. K. Benson home;

2nd: The block of land immediately east of the ravine dump, commonly known as the Charley Newning Homestead tract;

3rd: The south half of Block 18, Swisher's Addition to Austin and immediately north of the light tower.

After full discussion of the merits of the several places, the League by vote expressed itself in favor of the last named site and we therefore ask
