

Contract and Land Management Presents...

Prevailing Wage Requirements for City of Austin Projects

As part of an on-going series of informational events, the City of Austin Contract and Land Management Department, Contract Procurement Division, is hosting an information session to review the Prevailing Wage Requirements for City of Austin Projects. Staff will review what is contractually required and the prevailing wage review process. Additionally, staff will offer helpful information to ensure your projects stay in compliance with these important contract provisions.

The event will be at Learning Research Center, 2800 Spirit of Texas Dr., on Wednesday, September 15th - 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Auditorium. Bring a lunch and learn about the process!

For questions, please contact 974-7181 (Contract Procurement Division) or send an email to Contract.Procurement@ci.austin.tx.us.

Future sessions are being scheduled! Here's what's on the horizon...

- October 6th (Wednesday, October 6th- Learning Research Center, 2800 Spirit of Texas Dr.)-
Topic: TBD

<http://www.ci.austin.tx.us/clmd/>