

2018 PROJECTS

Christine Angelone and Alexander Bingham

Location: 7600 Wood Hollow Drive

This mural was inspired by the natural landscape of the Hill Country and features a fiery Texas sunset.

Matthew Briar Bonifacio Rodriguez

Location: 4801 Bolm Road

Based on conversations the artist had with residents of the Govalle neighborhood, this mural incorporates easily-recognizable themes that resonate with the community.

Luis Angulo

Location: 1728 Barton Springs Road

Adjacent to Barton Springs Pool and Zilker Park, this mural showcases the endangered Barton Springs Salamander.

Lance Bradley

Location: Mabel Davis Skate Park & Pool, 3427 Parker Ln

This imaginative mural design, executed in the energetic style of sketchbook drawings, blurs the boundary between real and surreal.

2018 PROJECTS

Kel Brown

Location: Rosewood Neighborhood Park, 2300 Rosewood Ave

The high-contrast, geometric design of this dynamic mural complements the lines of the tennis courts while also mimicking the playfulness of the park playground.

Rebecca Rothfuss Harrell

Location: Jamie Odom Gazebo at Town Lake Metro Park

This abstract mural that complements both the natural and built environment. Its colors reflect the glass of downtown buildings and the waterfront of Town Lake, with shapes that represent minerals and stones—such as celestine and limestone—found in Central Texas.

Flash Collective

Location: 30th Street and North Lamar

With large and vibrant graphic symbols, this mural creates visibility for themes important to Austin's LGBTQIA+ community, in a welcoming and inclusive manner.

Adreon Henry

Location: Bartholomew Pool, 1800 51st Street

The design of this vinyl wrap artwork incorporates patterns that celebrates life in Austin: a pecan tree pattern, a lap-lane pattern, and a music performance pattern.

Rakhee Jain

Location: Austin-Bergstrom International Airport

Located in the Barbara Jordan Terminal of the Austin-Bergstrom International Airport, this fiber-based artwork explores the idea of Austin as a welcoming place for all. Using a wax and dye patterning process known as batik, the artist worked with members of Austin's immigrant community to create the final design.

Jesse Melanson

Location: Austin Nature and Science Center, 2389 Stratford Drive

This colorful artwork will circumscribe a skylight located within the Austin Nature and Science Center. Imagery for the mural is drawn from a photography workshop with participants of the Center's youth summer programs.

Johnathon 'Chaka' Mahone

Location: Austin Public, 1143 Northwestern Ave

Inspiration for the mural on the exterior of Austin Public came from conversations between the artists and community members. The neighborhood expressed a desire for art that represented East Austin as a beacon for culture. The mural, featuring a vibrant sunflower framed by Texas musician Kenny Dorham, celebrates the history of Austin and radiates light out into the world.

SHOWGOATMURALWORKS

Location: Eiland/Moss BMX/Skate Park, 1213 Shoal Creek Blvd

This mural, located on walls throughout the skate park, blends graphic design and cartoons to create lighthearted imagery.
