

Assistant Director, Austin Water Employee Leadership & Development

CITY OF AUSTIN, TEXAS

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

The City of Austin is seeking a highly qualified individual to fill the Employee Leadership & Development Assistant Director position which reports to the Austin Water Director.

AUSTIN, TEXAS

This vibrant and dynamic city tops numerous lists for business, entertainment, and quality of life. One of the country's most popular, high-profile "green" and culturally dynamic cities, Austin was selected as the "Best City for the Next Decade" (Kiplinger, 2010), the "Top Creative Center" in the US (Entrepreneur.com, 2010), #1 on the Best Place to Live in the U.S. and #4 on the Best Places to Retire (U.S. News & World Report, 2019) , and ranked in the top ten on Forbes list of America's Best Employers for 2017.

Austin's vision is to be a beacon of sustainability, social equity, and economic opportunity; where diversity and creativity are celebrated; where community needs and values are recognized; where leadership comes from its community members, and where the necessities of life are affordable and accessible to all.

Austin is a player on the international scene with such events as SXSW, Austin City Limits, Urban Music Fest, Austin Film Festival, Formula 1 and home to companies such as Apple, Samsung, Dell and Ascension Seton Health. From the home of state government and the University of Texas, to the Live Music Capital of the World and its growth as a film center, Austin has gained worldwide attention as a hub for education, business, health, and sustainability.

The City offers a wide range of events, from music concerts, food festivals, and sports competitions to museum displays, exhibits, and family fun. Austin is also home to a wonderful ballet, world-class museums, one-of-a-kind shopping, and beautiful outdoor spaces. You can just as easily spend your morning paddling the lake as you can strolling through a celebrated history museum.

Located at the edge of the Texas Hill Country -- rolling terrain of limestone bluffs, springs, rivers and lakes -- Austin's climate is ideal for year-round jogging, cycling, hiking on the City's many trails or swimming at Barton Springs or one of the area's many other swimming holes. There are several excellent golf courses in the area as well as opportunities for rowing, kayaking, canoeing, camping, rock climbing, disk golf, mountain biking, fishing, and more. Austin has something for everyone.

AUSTIN CITY GOVERNMENT

The City of Austin is a progressive, dynamic full-service municipal organization operating under the Council-Manager form of government. The Austin City Council City has a 10-1 council system with an at-large Mayor and Council Members that represent 10 single member districts. The Mayor and Council Members serve in their respective seats for four years and cannot be elected to more than two consecutive terms. The City Council appoints the City Manager who is the chief administrative and executive officer of the City. The City Council and City Manager are committed to their mission of delivering the highest quality services in the most cost-effective manner.

STRATEGIC OUTCOMES AND INDICATORS

The City Council adopted six Strategic Outcomes and Indicators in 2018 as part of its Strategic Direction 2023 to guide the City in improving quality of life and civic participation in the Austin Community over the next three to five years. The Assistant Director will be responsible for supporting cross-departmental issues and involving external stakeholders as it relates to Government that works for all strategic outcome.

AUSTIN WATER

Austin Water provides safe, reliable, high quality, sustainable and affordable water services that have met the community's needs for more than 100 years. Austin Water's 1,200 employees serve more than 1,000,000 people in the Austin metropolitan area, both retail and wholesale, across more than 548 square miles. The utility draws water from the Colorado River into three regional water treatment plants, Handcox, Davis, and Ullrich, which have a combined capacity of 335 million gallons per day.

Austin Water has two wastewater treatment plants, Walnut Creek and South Austin Regional, that can receive up to 150 million gallons per day of sewage to treat. Wastewater is cleaned into high quality effluent that is safely returned to the Colorado River to augment environmental flows. More than a billion gallons of this high quality effluent was reclaimed in Fiscal Year 2016-17 for outdoor irrigation, industrial cooling, manufacturing and other uses.

Austin Water's award-winning Water Conservation Division successfully guided customers through a historic drought with public outreach and incentive programs for our customers.

The utility also manages 43,000 acres of wildlands that protects water quality and endangered species habitats.

Austin Water, in partnership with other City Departments and a citizen Task Force, has developed "Water Forward", a 100 year plan to manage our water resources and meet our community needs for the next century.
