Become a Youth Worker for the City of Austin!

AYD gives youth age 17-22 the opportunity to gain city work experience for one year!

Youth workers get paid a living wage and work under the supervision of a full-time city employee to:

- Remove graffiti
- Provide lawn maintenance

Goals

- Provide mentoring and help foster employability skills among youth workers.
- Provide opportunities for youth to earn a livable wage.
- Help youth develop a career path through educational achievement, goal setting, financial planning, and health equity.

| Supportive Services |

Youth workers collaborate with AYD's case manager to create an individualized one-year plan. The case manager assists youth workers to attain educational and career goals.

Benefits

- Case management services.
- Individualized mentorship.
- A temporary job that builds your resume and pays a living wage.

“AYD has helped me keep responsible and focused on doing what I need to do to provide for my family.”
