

Senior Lunch Social & Transport Guidelines

About the Senior Lunch Social & Transportation Services

The Senior Lunch Social at the Asian American Resource Center (AARC) is a component of the center's Recreational and Intergenerational Community Education (RICE) Program. Free limited lunches for eligible participants are served Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 11:30am to 12:30pm. Individual meals are served hot, prepared and are Asian-inspired. Limited congregate transport is available for those eligible participants.

Eligibility Requirements for the Senior Lunch Social

Any City of Austin resident age 60+ are eligible for a FREE senior lunch at the AARC. All are welcome and invited to attend, but priority is given to eligible participants. There is a $5 meal cost for non-eligible participants.

Registering for the Senior Lunch Social

First time participants will need to fill out the Adult Registration Form and show photo identification to verify eligibility. The Adult Registration Form is available in hard copy at the AARC or can be found at the bottom of the AARC Senior Programs webpage under "Forms."

Reserving your Meal

Participants can call the AARC at (512) 974-1700 to reserve their lunch no more than 7 days prior to the day they want to attend. Participants are able to register for up to 1 meal per week. Any e-mails or calls to reserve meals are accepted only during the facility's regular business hours.

If you are unable to reserve a meal, you are still welcome to come to the AARC and participate in any of the senior programs and recreational activities that occur around the meal time. Complimentary tea and coffee is served before lunch. Participants, who use our shuttle service, are prioritized due to their limited access to personal or public transportation.

Arrival Check-in & Walk-in Waitlist

Upon arrival to the AARC for the Senior Lunch Social, please check-in with AARC staff in the foyer to get your meal ticket. First time participants will have their picture taken to make an ID pass. Senior Lunch Social meal time begins promptly at 11:30am. Participants must arrive by 12pm to receive their meals. After 12pm, any unclaimed meals will be distributed to walk-in participants on a first come, first served basis.

Accommodation for Dietary Needs

The RICE Program provides Asian-inspired meals with a focus on healthy ingredients. AARC staff worked with a nutritionist to develop dietary and nutritional guidelines for food served by our vendors. Meals include a protein, at least one non-starchy vegetable servings, one grains/breads/starchy vegetable serving, one fruit serving and a beverage.

Please see our monthly menu posted on our website at <http://www.austintexas.gov/page/senior-programs> for details. Vegetarian options are available on all days meals are served. Please inform AARC staff if you need a vegetarian lunch when you reserve your meal. Also inform staff about any food allergies or other special needs to allow for reasonable accommodation.

Senior Transportation for Eligible Senior Lunch Social Participants

Limited congregate pickup for 3 or more eligible Senior Lunch Social participants to the AARC is available. Please consult with our monthly schedule to check our route options. Extraterritorial jurisdictions in the Austin area are not eligible for transportation. We have one passenger van that seats up to 11 passengers per trip and is not wheel-chair accessible. Participants riding the AARC shuttle to the Senior Lunch Social may not bring others in the van with them unless they are registered participants who have reserved a meal. Participants must be able to enter and exit the van without assistance.

Transportation reservations are made along with meal reservations. For questions about which route may best suit your needs, please call our main line at 512-974-1700.

Other Senior Activities at the AARC

The RICE Program activity rooms include table tennis, Go (weiqi), chess, checkers, mahjong, mancala, Go. Stop!, hanafuda, Sudoku, carrom, brain games, karaoke, computer basics, etc., during the senior program from 9-2pm. We also have a free computer lab and library with books and periodicals in various languages. The AARC also houses rotating art and history exhibits. Participants are welcome to bring their own arts and crafts projects to work on at the center. Wellness classes, including Tai Chi, Yoga, fitness videos, health education, and other topics are regularly available. For a full activities calendar, visit the AARC Senior Programs webpage online at www.austintexas.gov/page/senior-programs.

Multilingual Support Availability

AARC staff members speak a variety of languages. You can call our main line at (512) 974-1700 for assistance. Please note that our multilingual staff may only be accessible by phone during certain times due to scheduling and availability.
