

Education Programs 2019

Group Tours: To schedule a tour, please call (512) 974-4926 at least two weeks prior to requested tour date. 10 person minimum. FREE.

Tours include:

- Facility History
- George Washington Carver
- Juneteenth
- Austin African American Families
- African American Inventors
- L.C. Anderson High School

Moveable School

African American Folktales: Guest performers visit your school or group to bring ethnic history and fables to life and/or demonstrate Black Creative Arts such as drumming and Capoeira. DONATION.

Museum in a Basket (MIB): Interactive storytelling presentation brought to your classroom or small group. Topic: George Washington Carver. FREE.

Traveling Trunk: Borrow a trunk to teach your class or group about George Washington Carver. Videos, books, and curriculum. Email Education Coordinator Faith Weaver to request Folktales, MIB or Traveling Trunk at faith.weaver@austintexas.gov. FREE.

Lending Exhibits: Choose panels from an exhibit to bring to your school or facility to foster learning Black History. Topic: Women Against the Odds. To request exhibit loan, contact Collection Manager, Shellie Eagan at shellie.eagan@austintexas.gov. FREE.

Introduction to Genealogy: The George Washington Carver Genealogy Center has developed a High School curriculum to teach genealogy. Request a teacher's workshop to learn more or have our Genealogist come to your class. FREE (Suitable for High School Students) To request, email Genealogy Coordinator, Cynthia Evans at cynthia.evans@austintexas.gov.

Afterschool Classes

Keys of Life: Piano lessons with Daphne McDole and an annual piano recital, "Festival of Trees." (Thursdays).

Pre-Professional Youth Acting: B-Tru Arts, Aisha Melhem, M.A. offers a class for aspiring actors who are interested in film and stage acting. Ages 7-18 (Wednesdays).

Youth Dance Infusion: B-Tru Arts, Aisha Melhem, M.A. offers a program for young dancers to immerse themselves in all styles of dance. Ages 4-18 (Wednesdays).

Capoeira Luanda: Learn and practice this martial art that is a dance, a fighting style, an art, and a way of life. Instructor: Feijao, ages 6-13. Dates TBD.

Youth Camps

Broadway Bound: 7-week youth performing arts program. Acting, singing, dancing and technical aspects of theatre. Ages 7-17. June 3rd-July 22nd, 2019.

Youth Arts Safari: Creative Exploration through music, dance, arts, and crafts. Ages 7-12. 3-week camp, July 29th-August 16, 2019.