

The City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department, History, Arts, and Nature Division & the Dougherty Arts Center is pleased to announce our new program:

EMERGING TEACHING ARTISTS

ARTWORKS SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE

In partnership with MINDPOP, Austin Creative Alliance, and the National Endowment for the Arts, the Emerging Teaching Artists (ETA) seminar at the Dougherty Arts Center guides new artist educators through an exciting series of culture-arts based workshops, lectures, labs and activities to learn effective and engaging techniques and strategies for teaching art in the classroom and the community.

CLASSES MEETINGS, TIMES, AND COSTS:

- $149 for 12 classes
- February 4 - March 14, 2015
- Wednesday evenings 6 - 9pm
- Saturday mornings 10 - 1pm
- All art supplies for workshop classes will be provided

Classes and workshops will be held at the Arts School at Dougherty Arts Center:
1110 Barton Springs Road, Austin, TX 78704

ARTWORKS SCHOLARSHIPS

Artworks Scholarships will be awarded to artists from underrepresented communities and include the ETA seminar, and opportunities for networking.

ETA Graduates have access to MINDPOP's resources and opportunities for the arts community, including the Flashdrive professional development workshops.

To apply, please send your completed application to MINDPOP:
karen.sullivan@mindpop.org

To learn more about ETA contact:
Guiniviere Webb
Culture & Arts Education Coordinator
Dougherty Arts Center
512.974.4019
guiniviere.webb@austintexas.gov

For questions about your application contact:
Karen Sullivan
Creative Learning Program Manager
MINDPOP
512.699.1959
karen.sullivan@mindpop.org

The City of Austin is proud to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you require assistance for participation in our programs or use of our facilities, please call 512-974-4000.