DOUGHERTY ARTS CENTER

The Dougherty Arts Center is an award-winning Cultural Arts Center that offers a variety of visual, performing and digital arts experiences for a broad audience through its three programming components: Dougherty Arts Center Theater, the Julia C. Buttridge Gallery and the Dougherty Arts School.

Over the years, the Dougherty Arts School has received awards from the National Recreation and Parks Association (NRPA), the Texas Recreation and Parks Society (TRAPS), the Austin Chronicle Readers Poll and Austin Family Magazine. In 2006, school staff received two ACE Awards for Creativity from the City of Austin. Recently, in celebration of July as Parks and Recreation month, Austin's Parks and Recreation Department received the national award for NRPA's 2011 Rock Your Park flash mob contest.

The Dougherty Arts Center received Nickelodeon's first annual 2008 Parent's award for Best Artsy Class in Austin for teens. The Dougherty also developed the nationally recognized outreach program Totally Cool, Totally Art.

The Buttridge Gallery has received critical attention for its involvement in The Texas Biennial Project in Art in America, San Antonio Current, Glasstire and Dallas Arts Revue. In 2007, the Buttridge Gallery was awarded Best Independent Project and Best Group Exhibition by the Austin Critics Table.

The Dougherty Arts Center Theater has hosted several award-winning companies including Second Youth Family Theater, The Gilbert and Sullivan Society of Austin, the Austin City Ballet, Teatro Vivo, Latino Comedy Project and more. The theater is available to new and emerging performance companies, as well as used by local movie companies and non-profits for film screenings, rehearsals and corporate meetings.

The Dougherty Arts Center was formerly the Naval and Marine Reserve Center, built in 1947. In 1978 the building was dedicated to the City of Austin and named for the late Mary Ireland Graves Dougherty, an active arts advocate.

DOUGHERTY ARTS SCHOOL

The Dougherty Arts School is a community-based arts education organization focused on developing creativity in a multi-disciplinary environment.

The Dougherty Arts School's mission is to provide quality and multi-discipline arts educational programs for all ages through collaborations at all levels by teaching students to become future skilled workers, innovative leaders, and professional artists who make valued contributions to society.

We offer a range of programs for ages three years to senior adults with classes in drawing, painting, darkroom and digital photography, ceramics, jewelry and metals, textiles, artist development, digital design and animation, theater and more.

Sign up early!

Classes have a minimum number of students needed for the class to make. If the minimum enrollment is not met, the class will be canceled two (2) business days before the first class. Classes are learning studios; therefore, use of studios for commercial production work is discouraged.

CREATIVITY CLUB PLAYHOUSE

CREATIVITY CLUB PLAYHOUSE THEATRE SUMMER CAMP provides a structured, yet artistically energized and rewarding experience for students. The goal of this year's programming is to explore theatre arts lessons and activities that integrate exciting topics, plus special events, guest artists and speakers, and student performances! Join the Dougherty Arts School this summer at your school's campus for a three week romp through an entire theatrical production from start to finish. Family and Friends are invited to view the final production.

Join in the fun this summer with the Dougherty Arts School's newest program, the Creativity Club Playhouse Summer Theatre Camp! The Creativity Club Playhouse Summer Theatre Camp is a unique way for participants to learn the nuts and bolts of Theatre and Performing Arts, including acting, creating costumes and props, stagecraft, directing, and more.

Our Theatre Camp is divided by age. Session One (BFA - Born For Acting) is created specifically for developing skills in Theatre including games, songs, movement, and more, for campers ages 7-8. Session Two (MFA - Made For Acting) will focus on developing additional dramatic skills utilizing an adaption of a Shakespearean work for campers ages 9-12.

Our Theatre Camp curriculum is aligned with the 40 Development Assets®, a recognized standard in youth programming. This approach encourages the development of key attributes in areas including Support, Empowerment, Boundaries, and Expectations by providing participants opportunities to exercise these qualities. Please visit www.search-institute.org for more information.

BFA- Born for Acting!

FOR AGES 7-8

40 Development Assets®

In this exciting camp, students will have the opportunity to develop the Internal Assets of Self-Esteem and Cultural Competence. Participants will learn what special talents they possess, learn about their own cultural identity, and will be encouraged to interact positively with children of different backgrounds.

Being able to participate in theatre can be a transformative experience for youth and their families. Theatre Arts helps to foster an exciting combination of commitment, imagination, collaboration, discipline, creativity and passion.

SESSION 1: BORN FOR ACTING! CLOUDY WITH A CHANCE OF MEATBALLS

Reach for the stars! Learn all about theatre in this three week camp. You will have fun while exploring the fundamentals of the Dramatic Arts including movement, singing, and acting. Design your own props, create costumes, unleash your imagination through theatre games and active play, and put on a final performance for your friends and family!

MFA- Made for Acting!

40 Development Assets®

Above all, Summer Camp is fun! Summer Camp is more than just a time when school has let out, it's when children get to experience a different side of themselves, while engaging in creative exploration, spending time with friends, and meeting new people.

Students in MFA Summer Playhouse will focus on the Internal Assets of Interpersonal Competence, including making friends and meeting new people, developing a sense of Personal Power, and increasing Self Esteem through a fun and rewarding camp experience.

SESSION 2: MADE FOR ACTING! A MIDSUMMER'S NIGHT DREAM

Do you like being the center of attention? Or are you more comfortable behind the scene? Either way, this is your chance to get into the act! Learn what Shakespeare meant when he said "All the world's a stage." This exciting camp lets everyone be a star. You will participate in acting workshops, develop your stage presence and skills, design your own background and props, learn fun new theatre games, and put on a final show for your friends and family!
