

Please join the Austin Fire Department's Wildfire Division as we participate in the National Fire Protection Association's first national Wildfire Community Preparedness Day!

Saturday, May 3, 2014 10am to 3pm
JJ Pickle Commons Learning Center — Big Tex Auditorium
10100 Burnet Road

Doors open at 9am, so come early to check out exhibits and grab your SWAG!
*Lunch and Beverages Provided*

Wildfires are a fact of life in Central Texas, but it doesn't mean we are powerless against them!

We have solutions you can use to live in harmony with our fire-adapted ecosystems so our homes and communities don't have to be destroyed by wildfire.

The Austin Fire Department, in partnership with the Joint Wildfire Task Force, invites you to attend the first annual Wildfire Community Preparedness Day to give you tools you can use to win the fight against wildfire!

Wide range of topics delivered by subject matter experts:

- From Risk to Empowered
- Environmentally Minded Mitigation
- Insurance, Wildfire, and You
- Surviving Wildfire
- Firewise Communities
- Fire Adapted Communities
- Tools and Resources You Can Use

To register for this free event, go to <http://wildfirepreparedness.eventbrite.com>

