2020 LAMAR SENIOR ACTIVITY CENTER
LUNCHTIME LECTURE SERIES

Alexander von Humboldt: Culture, Science, and the Geography of Nature
By Dr. Kevin M. Anderson, Austin Water Center for Environmental Research

Wednesday, January 8, 2020 NOON to 1p
Natural Philosophy and the Concept of Nature

The 2020 CER Lunchtime Lectures will focus on Alexander von Humboldt – his life, legacy, and rediscovery. We will begin by examining our Western ideas of nature and the study of nature which laid the foundations for Humboldt’s ideas. From there, we will trace the influence of Humboldt on 19th century science, literature, and his disappearance from 20th century scientific education in the United States. The year will end by seeing how Humboldt’s legacy is re-emerging in contemporary environmentalism, environmental science, and the idea of the Anthropocene. Join us for a year of “Humboldtian Science” and Alexander von Humboldt!

January – Natural Philosophy and the Concept of Nature
Natural philosophy was the philosophical study of the physical universe that was dominant before the development of modern science. From the ancient world, starting with Aristotle, to the 19th century, natural philosophy was the common term for the practice of studying nature. Natural philosophy was distinguished from the other precursor of modern science, natural history, in that natural philosophy involved reasoning and explanations about nature, whereas natural history was more qualitative and descriptive. We begin 2020 by examining the origins and development of natural philosophy from the Greeks to the Scientific Revolution which set the stage for Humboldtian science.

Letter from the LSACAB President, Gayle Fischer

Happy New Year, everyone! I hope all your holiday dreams came true!

I want to thank all who gave so generously at our “giving” events this year. At the November Birthday Bingo, we collected 145 lbs. of food for Austin Area Food Bank which more than doubled last year’s donations! Texas Public Employees Association added their donations to LSAC donations and 206 toys and 51 lbs. of food items were collected for Brown Santa! The most generous people in town are right here at the Lamar Senior Activity Center! I have to say that LSAC PARTICIPANTS ARE AWESOME!!

The next event the Board is planning is the Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon to thank all our wonderfully dedicated volunteers. The donations of their skills and time keep games, classes and services going all year. The Board, the Guild and the Nut Fundraiser are all run by the volunteers. LSAC VOLUNTEERS ARE AWESOME!!

The Board accepted and acknowledged donations from several participants and civic minded people in 2019. We received over $600, two pianos, the lobby frig, a wheelchair and decorations. Thanks to all those individuals whose generosity has enhanced the look and services of the LSAC. LSAC DONORS ARE AWESOME!!

I am so happy to announce that Joanne Cepero, Tel Dalton, Chuck Mandelbaum and Ken Moore have all agreed to serve another term on the Advisory Board. They will be installed at the next Board Meeting on January 8, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. Board meetings are open to the public and you’re welcome to attend any of them on the 2nd Wednesday of the month from September through May.

Reminder to Birthday and Bingo people: You must sign up ahead of time for January’s Birthday Bingo (Wed., Jan. 15). Cost is only $3 and 25¢ a card with January birthday people getting 2 free cards. There will be a light lunch, cake (or cupcakes) with drinks and gift cards for prizes.

Don’t forget to fill out and sign your 2020 PARD Waiver Form and make an annual donation ($5) to the Advisory Board. You can also pay for a Program Guide to be mailed ($15) or emailed ($5) to you for the entire year. Printing and mailing costs for the Program Guide keep increasing, so your donations are appreciated and help keep Board sponsored events going all year.

The Advisory Board and City Staff want to make 2020 your best year at the LSAC. If you have suggestions on things you would like to see at the Center in the coming year, please leave your ideas with City Staff or the volunteer receptionists. I look forward to working with you all in the New Year and making LSAC an AWESOME place to be!
