Faerie Homes and Gardens

2nd annual Faerie architecture show

Zilker Botanical Garden

GOAL

Provide the opportunity to create scale housing with the use of natural materials only. This exhibit will make use of whimsical design to highlight those native materials and plants found in Texas, including but not limited to seeds, tree bark, twigs, and stumps, grasses, shells. The Faerie homes trail display will take place during the Woodland Faerie exhibit and events at the Zilker Botanical Garden (ZBG), March 10th through May 26th, 2014.

BACKGROUND

Celebrating over 50 years in Austin's central park, ZBG's mission includes providing a place of beauty and tranquility, education and sustainability through horticulture. Since its formation in 1960, ZBG has been supported through the work of dozens of Garden Clubs to educate and relate the importance and interest about plants.
