

Come on out to the community’s big Austin Earth Day Festival on April 22 and visit the City of Austin’s special attraction – The Rethink Arena.

The City is sharing over 40 ways that we’re rethinking how to live, work and play – to help secure our sustainable future. We’re challenging Austinites to join us, and catch the rethink spirit, with ideas for 40 actions that everyone can take.

- When: It’s on Earth Day! This Sunday, 12 to 6 PM
- Where: Mueller – around the Browning Hanger, 4550 Mueller Blvd, Austin TX
- What: Loads of family fun, exhibits, info and activities, food, provocative speakers
- Why: Recommit to personal action for environmental and climate protection
- Hear: Lucia Athens, Chief Sustainability Officer, City of Austin, 1:00 PM, “Rethinking Austin’s Bright Green Future” Launch of an exciting new effort!
- Info: www.earthdayaustin.com

The Rethink Arena: 10 Areas

Talk with City staff about how departments are innovating across 10 action areas, and how you can help secure Austin’s bright, green future:

- Green Economy & Innovation
- Livability & Complete Neighborhoods
- Mobility & Air Quality
- Water Security
- Ecosystems & Green Infrastructure
- Zero Waste
- Arts & Culture
- Schools & Youth
- Health & Safety

Festival produced by Texas Green Network and sponsored by the City of Austin and Mueller.
