

Texas Lantana

(Lantana urticoides)

Texas Lantana is a native Texas plant with yellow and orange flowers. It likes sun and does not need a lot of water. It attracts butterflies and is an important food for the larva of the Lantana Scrub-Hairstreak butterfly. Learn more about Central Texas gardening at www.GrowGreen.org