

MEETING NOTICE: The public is invited to a meeting to share information about the City of Austin's Emergency Operations Plan

The City of Austin's Emergency Operations Plan was developed to provide a general, conceptual framework for the efficient use of resources and a coordinated, multi-agency response to any major emergency or disaster that impacts the area. The plan establishes guidelines for how the City responds to all hazards within its corporate limits. The meeting will be held as follows:

Thursday, Feb. 21, 2013

Austin City Hall

City Hall Boards and Commissions Room

Room 1101

301 W. Second Street

Austin, TX 78701

5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

The purpose of this meeting is to update the general public and stakeholders, including the Pipeline Safety Section of the Gas Services Division of the Railroad Commission of Texas, local businesses and organizations, schools and hospitals, on the Emergency Operations Plan.

Developed by the City's Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Management (HSEM), the plan may be found on the department's website at www.austinhsem.com.

Questions about the Emergency Operations Plan should be addressed to Otis J. Latin, Sr., Director, City of Austin Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Management, phone (512) 974-0450, or, by email at oem@austintexas.gov.
