Sun Country starts seasonal service to Minneapolis from South Terminal

New carrier Sun Country Airlines launched new, seasonal, nonstop service between Austin-Bergstrom International Airport (AUS) and Minneapolis – St. Paul International Airport (MSP) on August 31, 2017.

Arriving and departing from the South Terminal, Sun Country is operating a Boeing 737-800 aircraft featuring 12 first class and 150 cabin seats.

“From the Land of 10,000 Lakes to the Live Music Capital of the World, we welcome Sun Country Airlines’ new nonstop between Austin and Minneapolis-St. Paul,” said Jim Smith, Executive Director Austin-Bergstrom International Airport.

Flights depart Austin on Sundays at 11 a.m., arriving at Minneapolis-St. Paul at 1:35 p.m. Service from Minneapolis-St. Paul departs Thursdays at 3:30 p.m. and arrives in Austin at 6:15 p.m.

“Our Midwest travelers can now experience Austin’s thriving music, entertainment, cuisine, and culture, while bringing our southern travelers up north to experience the museums, shopping, and great outdoors of Minneapolis/St. Paul and the surrounding area,” said Zarir Erani, Sun Country Airlines President and CEO.

“The South Terminal’s intimate and retro-vibe will offer Sun Country’s passengers an airport experience as unique as Austin,” said Jeff Pearse, CEO of LoneStar Airport Holdings, LLC, developer and operator of the South Terminal.

Norwegian announces nonstop service from Austin to London Gatwick beginning in 2018

Norwegian has announced nonstop service from Austin-Bergstrom International Airport (AUS) to London Gatwick Airport (LGW), making it the first Texas airport with service by Norwegian.

Service is scheduled to begin on March 27, 2018, and will operate three times per week on a Boeing 787-9 Dreamliner.

“We’re very excited to bring the Norwegian experience to Austin,” said Norwegian’s CEO Bjørn Kjos. “This city makes perfect sense as our first entry into the Lone Star state. Austin is one of the fastest-growing cities in America, which perfectly fits Norwegian, being the world’s fastest-growing airline. We see great opportunities with our new route, both in terms of lowering trans-Atlantic fares for Austinites and bringing more tourists and business travelers to the region, which will help support thousands of local jobs.”

The new nonstop service will operate on Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday, departing from the Barbara Jordan Terminal at 4:20 p.m. and arriving London at 7:20 a.m. Flights depart London at 10 a.m. and arrive in Austin at 2:20 p.m. All times are local.

London Gatwick Airport is the second-largest airport in the United Kingdom and is an accessible entry point to all of Europe.

2017 summer months set new passenger records

Over three consecutive months this summer, Austin-Bergstrom International Airport set all-time monthly records.

Each month from May to July 2017 set a new record.

The airport has been experiencing robust growth over the past year. July stands as the new monthly passenger record with 1,310,174 traveling through the airport. Records were also set in June with 1,279,204 and in May with 1,217,824 passengers.

Frontier doubles Austin destinations

Frontier Airlines announced plans to double the number of nonstop destinations it currently serves from Austin with flights to eight cities, including two new destinations. These new routes include Charlotte, NC; Cincinnati; new nonstop Columbus, Ohio; New Orleans; Phoenix; Raleigh-Durham, NC; new nonstop Ontario, California; and San Jose, California.

The flights to New Orleans, Ontario, Phoenix, and Raleigh-Durham will launch in October 2017 while the rest are planned to launch in spring 2018. Some flights begin at $49, one way.

“Frontier now offers our Low Fares Done Right service to 16 destinations,” said Tyri Squyres, Vice President – Marketing, Frontier Airlines. “Customers traveling from Austin now have a new significantly lower-cost option to reach these great destinations.”

Delta Air Lines connects Austin with Amsterdam during SXSW

Delta Air Lines has announced four nonstop round-trip flights between Amsterdam’s Schiphol Airport (AMS) and Austin-Bergstrom International Airport (AUS) during SXSW. Scheduled on March 8, 9, 14, and 18, 2018, these flights will be operated using Boeing 767-300 aircraft with 225 seats, allowing almost 1,000 fans to fly nonstop to attend the festival. The flights from Amsterdam will connect services with the carriers’ joint European network, including Paris, Frankfurt, and Rome.

“Delta’s AUS-AMS flights will make it even easier for global customers to experience SXSW, which last year saw 400,000+ attendees at this convergence of music, interactive, and film industries,” said Jim Smith, Executive Director, Austin-Bergstrom International Airport.
