The matter was referred to Councilman Gillis and the Board of Equalization for a reinspection of the premises.

Victor Cluck protested the valuation placed on the improvements on Lot 26,

Outlot 7, Division "C", Country Club Lawns, on the grounds that same was not 66-2/3% completed on January 1. The matter was referred to the Board of Equalization for reconsideration with Mr. Cluck, the latter agreeing to abide by the final decision of said Board.

Mrs. Mary Fagg, 1708 Enfield Road, protested the valuation placed on the improvements on the east part of Lot 73 (B) and Lot 74, Enfield "C", Division "Z", declaring that the entire valuation should not exceed $16,000. The matter was referred to Councilman Gillis for reinspection in company with the Board of Equalization to determine whether said improvements are equalized with similar property.

William A. Harrison protested the valuation placed on the improvements on Lot 8 and the north one-half of Lot 7, Block 15, Rosedale "D", including the garage, on the grounds that $1950 would be two-thirds of the actual cost. The matter was referred to Councilman Gillis and the Board of Equalization for a reinspection of the house to determine whether same is equalized with like property.

J. W. McCaslin, 2201 Haskell Street, protested the valuation of the improvements on Lot 16, Block B, Division "O", declaring that $700, instead of $950, should have been the valuation. The matter was referred to Councilman Gillis and the Board of Equalization for a reinspection of the premises.

Mrs. Ruth Petty, 1908 University Avenue, protested the assessment on the improvements on Lot 35, Block B-C, Outlot 20, Division "D", on the grounds that the valuation represented the actual cost of the property. Upon being shown that the correct unit price had been placed upon said improvements, the protest was withdrawn.
