

Officially posted by PIO of the City of Austin on April 1, 2010.

90 day period ended June 28, 2010.

Scheduled for Land, Facilities and Programs Committee: August 9, 2010

APPLICATION: Bluebonnet Park or Little Zilker Park

Suggested Name	Suggested name's relevance to the park site	Number of 'votes'	Suggested by
Bluebonnet Park	The park which is next to Zilker Elementary has a boundary on Bluebonnet Lane. The name serves the purpose of clarifying its location as well as being a reference to its location and to the beautiful flowers that often bloom there. The state flower is part of nature and a park brings us into nature.	7	Kim McNight; Heidi Fischer; Gina Diehl; Susan Milligan; Camille Perry; Maria Fridley; Robert Ruiz
Little Zilker Park	Name that some people in the neighborhood and school community already use to distinguish the park from the larger Zilker Park.	3	Kim McNight; Richard Garvois; Facundo Sanchez
Zilker Park	Namesake of Zilker Elementary which is adjacent to Zilker Park and the Zilker neighborhood, which surrounds the park. Continuity of naming with the neighborhood and the neighborhood school.	1	John Cunningham Jr.
Jennifer Gale Memorial Park	She ran for different political offices in this city and tried to promote a positive view of this city. It is a recognition of all of her efforts over the years in Austin.	1	Michael Dobbs
Lone Star Park	The only name fitting for a park in the Capital City of Lane Start State I feel we should have a park named after the state The LONE STAR State	1	Tiffany West
Abraham Lincoln Park	President who did the most for the well fair of the people of this nation since it was founded.	1	Mike Kempel
William D. Jones Park	William Jones, APD officer killed in the line of duty in 2000. 3 years with the Park Police. Naming the park for Officer Jones would be a fine way to honor his memory and service to the city.	1	Noah Deneau

Suggested Name	Suggested name's relevance to the park site	Number of 'votes'	Suggested by
Pretentious Park	The area is central to park activists who live in Austin. These activists exemplify those in the community who are consumed with bitchin to and about PARD, yet they never lift a rake to spread mulch.	1	Chuck Lancaster
Zilker Elementary Playground	That's the name on the PARD sign, off of Bluebonnet Lane. That's the name we are familiar with.	1	Rey Nevarez
Colonel Andy Park	Nickname of Andrew Jackson Zilker.	1	Sarah Powers
Bill Bunch Park	Bill is an environmental attorney and works with SOS. Has been a non-stop advocate for Barton Springs and the Edwards Aquifer for more than 25 years.	1	Sarah Fusco
Julian Soliz	A memorial to 5 year old Julian. Julian has "no connection to the facility," but would often visit Zilker and enjoyed playing and enjoyed making friends at the park. It would be a memorial to promote community awareness.	1	Kabrisha Lovett
Iraq/Afghanistan Veteran Memorial Park	Memorial to veterans who have served in the Iraqi and Afghanistan wars.	1	Eric P. Miller
Meditation Gardens	Fits in with the Austin theme.	1	Veronica
Edwards Park	Named after the Edwards Aquifer	1	Sarah Leach
Barton Trail Park	Close to Barton Springs and various trails in the area.	1	Louri O'Leary
Will Wynn Park	Former mayor who implemented various and numerous improvements to Downtown Austin. Tribute to him.	1	Louri O'Leary
Stuart Strong Park	Tribute to former Assistant Director, Stuart Strong	1	Robin Kennedy
Bluebonnet Zilker Neighborhood Park	Combination of the street it is on and the Elementary school it is located next to Zilker Elementary	1	David R. Rigney
Music in the Park		1	Michael Cline
Sarha Hensley		1	Faith Hill