AN ORDINANCE WAIVING CERTAIN APPLICATION AND PERMIT FEES IN CHAPTER 10-3 (FOOD AND FOOD HANDLERS) OF THE CITY CODE RELATING TO CERTAIN VENDORS AT CERTIFIED FARMERS MARKETS WITHIN THE CITY OF AUSTIN.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN:

PART 1. The following fee and permit waivers are only applicable at a certified farmers market within the city.

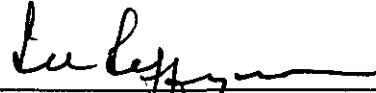

- (A) The city council approves one annual mobile food vending permit application fee per farmer or food producer applying for multiple mobile food establishment permits at the same time. Except for the first permit application submitted, the council waives the application fee for any other mobile vending permit applications submitted to the city by the farmer or food vendor at the same time. These permits will be identified as being valid at a certified farmers market only.
- (B) The council waives the restricted mobile food establishment permit application fee and the annual restricted mobile food establishment permit fee for vendors selling only eggs (or eggs and other items that do not require a permit) at a certified farmers market within the city. The city will issue to vendors selling only eggs at certified farmers markets a "Certified Farmers Market Eggs Only" permit.
- (C) The council waives: 1) one sampling permit fee per certified farmers market; and, 2) one special event permit fee, four (4) times a year, for a chef's demonstration booth per farmers market. Either a single special event or a mobile food establishment permit are required of food vendors preparing food at a certified farmers market but cannot be located in the chef demonstration booth operated by the certified farmers market.
