Additional Backup Information:

The 2016 Large Scale General Civil Engineering Services Rotation List provides professional services for civil engineering projects up to $800,000 in design fees, have a critical schedule, or are of an emergency nature. Typical projects include water and wastewater planning studies and investigations, pipeline design and rehabilitation, utility relocation design, and evaluation of lift station improvements including electrical, mechanical and instrumentation work. Additional projects may include storm water and drainage improvements, miscellaneous park projects, street and intersection improvements, and American with Disabilities Act sidewalk ramps and crosswalks.

In 2017, three large Austin Water projects, as well as, two 2016 Mobility Bond projects required utilization of the 2016 Large Scale General Civil Engineering Services Rotation List which depleted the authority of the consultants faster than expected. In order to replenish authority staff is requesting additional authorization of $500,000 per firm for a total of $6,000,000. The new not-to-exceed total for this Rotation List will be $15,600,000 which will be allocated as appropriate to each of the 12 firms. This will allow the Capital Contracting Office to continue supporting client departments who utilize this Rotation List.
