Additional Backup Information:
This public hearing is for an application that will be (or has been) submitted to the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs (TDHCA). The applicant, AMTEX Multi-Housing, LLC, or an affiliated entity, seeks 4% Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC), and private activity bonds. The resolution relates to the proposed development. It confirms that Council: (1) received notice of the application, (2) held a public hearing on the application, (3) had sufficient opportunity to obtain responses from the applicant related to questions or concerns about the proposed development, and (4) that the Council does not object to the proposed application.

Depending on the location of the proposed development, the resolution may do one or more of the following: (a) acknowledge that the proposed development will be located one linear mile or less from another development that serves the same type of household and received an allocation of Housing Tax Credits (or private activity bonds) within the last three years, (b) acknowledge that the proposed development is located in a census tract with more than 20% housing tax credits per total households, (c) allow the construction of the proposed development, and (d) affirm that the proposed development is consistent with the City’s obligation to affirmatively further fair housing. The property is located in the City’s extraterritorial jurisdiction (ETJ).

Proposed Project
AMTEX Multi-Housing, LLC, is planning to develop a 304-unit multi-family development to be located near 7430 Bluff Spring Road, Austin, TX 78744. The community will be 100% affordable to households earning at or below 60% of the Austin Median Family Income (MFI). The development is proposed to be partially funded with 4% LIHTC and tax-exempt bonds issued by the Capital Area Housing Finance Corporation. No funding from the Austin Housing Finance Corporation is being requested.

The proposed development’s application to the City, as well as socioeconomic and amenities in the surrounding area, may be found at <https://austintexas.gov/page/current-applications>.
