EXPERIENCE Don Hisle joined IBM in 1966 beginning his 30-year tenure overseeing the manufacturing strategies and business models in the division's global markets. Upon retirement in 1996, Hisle founded a construction company in the Central Texas area. In addition, Hisle became a private investor in the housing industry. Since being appointed August 1995, Hisle has served on the Leander ISD Board of Trustees, as well as in various officer and leadership capacities. He has served the Leander, Cedar Park and Central Austin community as a consummate professional and champion of organizations with his extensive expertise in strategic planning and organizational alignment. Hisle has helped provide innovation, change, and solutions to the rapidly growing community over the past three decades.
