Addendum

Article 6

The period of the nonprofit corporation's duration is perpetual.

Article 7

The nonprofit corporation may not: (a) engage directly or indirectly, in any business or activity other than the acquisition of the limited partner interest in the Limited Partnership, unless such activity is approved by the AHFC board of directors, (b) incur or assume any indebtedness with respect to ownership, operation, rehabilitation or disposition of the Villas on Sixth Apartments, other than indebtedness incurred by the nonprofit corporation in acquiring the limited partner interest, or (c) violate or fail to maintain the nonprofit corporation's identity as an entity separate from any other person or entity; and, provided further, the nonprofit corporation may perform any and all lawful activities which may be reasonably necessary, useful or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining any of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, such as corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies.

Article 8
Powers

The activities of the nonprofit corporation and the application of the funds and assets of the nonprofit corporation are limited to the purposes stated herein, but the nonprofit corporation shall: (i) have and exercise all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and functions given by the general laws of the State of Texas to nonprofit corporations incorporated under the Code; and (ii) have all other powers of a like or different nature not prohibited by law which are available to nonprofit corporations in the State of Texas and which are necessary or useful to enable the nonprofit corporation to perform the purposes for which it is created, including the power to issue bonds, notes or other obligations, and otherwise exercise its borrowing power to accomplish the purposes for which it was created.

Article 9
Board of Directors

All powers of the nonprofit corporation are be vested in a Board of Directors (the "Board") consisting of three (3) persons. The initial directors of the nonprofit corporation (each a "Director" and collectively the "Directors") are those persons named in Article 3. Each such person resides in the State of Texas and each is an employee of the City of Austin. Each initial Director serves for a term expiring December 5, 2022. Subsequent Directors will be appointed to the Board of the nonprofit corporation by the Board of Directors of AHFC. Except as provided in this Articles 9, each Director serves for the term provided in the By-Laws. Any Director may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the Board of Directors of AHFC. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased only by an amendment to this Certificate of Formation and may never be decreased to less than three (3).

DRAFT

To be qualified to serve as a Director, a person must be an employee of AHFC or the City of Austin and be at least eighteen (18) years old. AHFC shall designate the president of the nonprofit corporation. AHFC may appoint the number of ex-officio, non-voting members of the Board that is desired. All other matters pertaining to the internal affairs of the nonprofit corporation are governed by the By-Laws of the nonprofit corporation, so long as such By-Laws are not inconsistent with this Certificate of Formation or the laws of the State of Texas.

Article 10
Limitation on Liability of Directors

To the fullest extent permitted by Texas statutes, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits broader limitation than permitted prior to such amendment), a Director is not be liable to the nonprofit corporation for monetary damages for an act or omission in the Director's capacity as a Director. Any repeal or amendment of this Article 10 by the Board is prospective only and does not adversely offset any limitation on the personal liability of a Director existing at the time of such repeal or amendment.

Article 11
Restrictions and Requirements

Regardless of any other provisions of this Certificate of Formation or the laws of the State of Texas, the nonprofit corporation may not (i) permit any part of the net earnings of the nonprofit corporation to inure to the benefit of any private interest or private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for personal services rendered to or for the nonprofit corporation in effecting one or more of its purposes); (ii) devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise; or (iii) participate in, or intervene in (in each case either directly or indirectly), political campaigns on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Any income earned by the nonprofit corporation after payment of reasonable expenses, debt and establishing a reserve with respect to the Villas on Sixth Apartments accrues solely to the benefit of AHFC, unless AHFC otherwise directs in accordance with the Local Government Code.

No note, bond, loan, debt, or other obligation of the nonprofit corporation is an indebtedness, liability, general or moral obligation, or pledge of the faith or credit of the State of Texas, the City of Austin, AHFC, or any other political subdivision or governmental unit; nor does any note, bond, loan, debt, or other obligation constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation or restriction or an agreement, obligation, or indebtedness of AHFC, the City of Austin, or the State of Texas within the meaning of AHFC's Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws, the City Charter, or of any constitutional or statutory provision whatsoever.

AHFC, at all times, has an unrestricted equal right to receive any income earned by the nonprofit corporation, exclusive of amounts needed by the nonprofit corporation to cover reasonable expenditures and reasonable reserves for future activities. The nonprofit corporation must conduct its affairs and activities so as to insure that upon its dissolution full legal title to all
