Additional Backup Information:
The contract will provide marketing collateral specialty products to various City departments. Marketing products are used by various City departments to promote and educate the public during events such as community or health outreach events. Examples of programs that utilize these products include the City’s Zero Waste Goal initiative, Austin Fire Department safety and public education events, community outreach events, and City career fairs.

This contract is needed to provide for the best pricing and availability on promotional and marketing items as well as ensuring quality and consistency of the City’s marketing, logos and materials.

If the City is unable to secure a contract, the departments will be forced to procure these marketing items on an as needed basis which may result in higher prices and delays in production.
