Prior Council Action:

October 1, 2020 - Austin City Council set a public hearing for October 15, 2020 regarding an application by Springdale Manor Apartments, LP, for housing tax credits for a multi-family development that will be financed through the private activity bond program.

For More Information:

Rosie Truelove, Director, Neighborhood Housing and Community Development, 512-974-3064; Mandy DeMayo, Community Development Administrator, Neighborhood Housing and Community Development, 512-974-1091.

Additional Backup Information:

This action conducts a public hearing to receive public comment on an application that will be (or has been) submitted to the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs. The Applicant, Springdale Manor Apartments, LP, or an affiliated entity, seeks funding for the Development through 4% Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC) and private activity bonds. The property is located within Council District 1.

After the public hearing, Council will consider a resolution about the proposed development, the application, and, if necessary, the allocation of housing tax credits and private activity bonds.

Proposed Development

Springdale Manor Apartments, LP, which is an affiliate of parent company Journeyman Group, is planning to develop a 186 unit multi-family development to be located at 7601 Springdale Road, Austin, Texas, 78724. The community will be affordable to households earning at or below 80% of the Austin Median Family Income. The development is proposed to be partially funded with 4% LIHTC and tax-exempt bonds issued by Travis County Housing Finance Corporation (TCHFC). An affiliate of TCHFC will be the General Partner of the Development's Partnership, thereby allowing for a full property tax exemption. No funding from the Austin

Housing Finance Corporation is being requested.

The proposed development's application to the City, as well as socioeconomic characteristics and amenities in the surrounding area, may be found at
