On March 6, 2020, a Declaration of Local Disaster was issued by Mayor Adler to allow the City to take measures to avoid the spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) across the city and county. On March 13, 2020, Governor Abbott issued a Declaration of State of Disaster that allowed for additional steps to prepare for, respond to, and mitigate the spread of COVID-19. The Housing and Planning Department executed an Interlocal Agreement with the Housing Authority of the City of Austin (HACA), enabling a strong local partner to assist with deploying more than $12.9M in emergency rental assistance funded with CARES Act dollars and local dollars made available in Fiscal Year 2019-20. These funds were able to serve 4,322 households, paying for 11,386 months of rent. However, the total number of active applicants left unserved is 520, with more than 1,500 applicants remaining on the waitlist.

In order to continue providing urgently needed emergency rental assistance to households impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, an amendment to the interlocal agreement to increase the amount by $3,200,000 was needed.

Strategic Outcome(s):

Economic Opportunity and Affordability.
