Additional Backup Information:

This item requests Council to ratify the contract with the Greater Austin Performing Arts Center (The Long Center) to deploy the Austin Music Disaster Relief Grant (AMDRG) program in response to the music industry creative workers facing hardships due to the economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Long Center <<https://thelongcenter.org/>>, will activate and disburse the Austin Music Disaster Relief Grant (AMDRG) program as identified in the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA). Services will include utilizing the City of Austin Portal application system to best streamline the evaluation and scoring tasks according to City program guidelines, to provide a final list of eligible and scored applicants for Fiscal Year 2021-2022 AMDRG to the City of Austin, and issue checks to AMDRG awardees.

The Austin City Council approved Resolution No. 20210610-077 <<https://www.austintexas.gov/departments/city-council/2021/20210610-reg.htm>> on June 10, 2021 to dedicate $4 million from the federal American Rescue Plan Act's Local Fiscal Recovery Fund Austin's Music Industry. There is $2.3 million available for this grant. The program guidelines align with Music Commission Recommendation No: 20210820-1a.

Initially, Council provided direction in April 2021, to establish an Austin Music Disaster Relief Fund and to provide emergency disaster relief to musicians affected by COVID-19 pandemic. Best practices were identified from feedback from the Austin music community-to form eligibility and application guidelines to be executed by a third party. To ensure that Austin's most vulnerable musicians are aware of the opportunity and prepared to apply and coordinate with community partners to inform music communities across Austin and provide technical support necessary for musicians to complete grant applications.

Staff anticipates that applications for AMDRG program will go live and be evaluated and processed in late 2021.

Strategic Outcome(s):

Economic Opportunity and Affordability & Culture & Lifelong Learning.
