The term of the three-way interlocal agreement (agreement) between the City, Travis County, and the Austin/Travis County Sobriety Center Local Government Corporation (Local Government Corporation) began October 1, 2018, and it replaced a previous interlocal agreement between the City and the Local Government Corporation that governed the establishment of the Sobering Center and the provision of limited services prior to the Sobering Center becoming fully operational.

The Sobering Center serves individuals who meet the legal definition of intoxication. Individuals may be referred and transported to the facility by law enforcement or emergency medical services. The Local Government Corporation aims to enhance public health and public safety by providing an alternative to the emergency room and jail.

Amendment No. 4 to the agreement authorized the execution of Amendment No. 4, which added $33,000 in one-time funds.

Amendment No. 1 to the agreement authorized Travis County to provide the Local Government Corporation a one-time, non-interest-bearing loan in an amount not to exceed $100,000 and did not require any funding from the City. The County issued the loan to cover operating expenses for the Sobering Center during a delayed reimbursement of grant funding to the Local Government Corporation.
