Addendum

Article 6

The nonprofit corporation is a nonprofit corporation formed under the laws of the State of Texas and is related to, affiliated with, and an instrumentality of, AHFC.

Article 7

The period of the nonprofit corporation’s duration is perpetual.

Article 8

Powers

The activities of the nonprofit corporation and the application of the funds and assets of the nonprofit corporation are limited to the purposes stated herein, but the nonprofit corporation expressly: (i) has and may exercise all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and functions given by the general laws of the State of Texas to nonprofit corporations incorporated under the Code that are not inconsistent with nonprofit corporation’s purposes; and (ii) has all other powers of a like or different nature not prohibited by law which are available to nonprofit corporations in the State of Texas and which are necessary or useful to enable the nonprofit corporation to perform the purposes for which it is created, including the power to issue bonds, notes or other obligations, and otherwise exercise its borrowing power to accomplish the purposes for which it was created.

Article 9

Board of Directors

All powers of the nonprofit corporation are vested in a Board of Directors (the Board) consisting of three persons. The initial directors of the nonprofit corporation (each a Director and collectively the Directors) are those persons named in Article 3. Each such person resides in the State of Texas and each is an employee of the City of Austin. Each initial Director will serve for a term expiring December 5, 2023. Subsequent Directors will be appointed to the Board of the nonprofit corporation by the Board of Directors of AHFC. Except as provided in this Articles 10, each Director serves for the term provided in the By-Laws. Any Director may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the Board of Directors of AHFC. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased only by an amendment to this Certificate of Formation and may never be decreased to less than 3.

To be qualified to serve as a Director, a person must be an employee of AHFC or the City of Austin and be at least 18 years old. AHFC will designate the president of the nonprofit corporation. AHFC may appoint the number of ex-officio, non-voting members of the Board that is desired. All other matters pertaining to the internal affairs of the nonprofit corporation are governed by the By-Laws of the nonprofit corporation, so long as such By-Laws are not inconsistent with this Certificate of Formation or the laws of the State of Texas.

Article 10

Limitation on Liability of Directors
To the fullest extent permitted by Texas statutes, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits broader limitation than permitted prior to such amendment), a Director is not liable to the nonprofit corporation for monetary damages for an act or omission in the Director’s capacity as a Director. Any repeal or amendment of this Article 11 by the Directors is prospective only and does not adversely offset any limitation on the personal liability of a Director existing at the time of such repeal or amendment.

Article 11
Restrictions and Requirements

Regardless of any other provisions of this Certificate of Formation or the laws of the State of Texas, the nonprofit corporation may not (i) permit any part of the net earnings of the nonprofit corporation to inure to the benefit of any private interest or private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for personal services rendered to or for the nonprofit corporation in effecting one or more of its purposes); (ii) devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise; or (iii) directly or indirectly participate, or intervene, in political campaigns on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Any income earned by the nonprofit corporation after payment of reasonable expenses, debt and establishing a reserve with respect to the Development accrues only to the benefit of AHFC, unless AHFC otherwise directs in accordance with the Code.

Any notes, bonds, loans, debts, or other obligations of the nonprofit corporation are not an indebtedness, liability, general or moral obligation or pledge of the faith or credit of the State of Texas, the City of Austin, AHFC, or any other political subdivision or governmental unit, nor may any such notes, bonds, loans, debts or other obligations constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation or restriction or an agreement, obligation, or indebtedness of AHFC, the City of Austin, or the State of Texas within the meaning of AHFC’s Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws, the City Charter, or of any constitutional or statutory provision whatsoever.

AHFC, at all times, has an unrestricted equal right to receive any income earned by the nonprofit corporation, exclusive of amounts needed by the nonprofit corporation to cover reasonable expenditures and reasonable reserves for future activities. The nonprofit corporation must conduct its affairs and activities so as to insure that upon its dissolution full legal title to all property of the nonprofit corporation with respect to which such indebtedness was incurred will vest in AHFC.

Article 12
Amendment to Certificate of Formation and By-Laws

This Certificate of Formation and the By-Laws of the nonprofit corporation, may at any time and from time to time be amended so as to make any changes therein and add any provisions thereto which might have been included in the Certificate of Formation or the By-Laws in the first instance. Any such amendment is effected in either of the following manners: (i) the Board of the nonprofit corporation files with the Board of Directors of AHFC an application in writing seeking permission to amend the Certificate of Formation or the By-Laws, specifying in such application the amendment proposed to be made, the Board of Directors of AHFC will consider such application and, if it by appropriate resolution duly finds and determines that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the proposed amendment be made and authorizes the same to be made, and approves the form of the proposed amendment, then the Board of the nonprofit corporation may amend the Certificate of Formation or the By-Laws by adopting such amendment at a meeting of the Board of the nonprofit corporation and, in the case of amendments to the Certificate of Formation, delivering articles of amendment to the Secretary of State, or (ii) the Board of Directors of AHFC may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the nonprofit corporation (including the power to terminate the nonprofit corporation), subject to any limitations on the impairment of contracts entered into by the nonprofit corporation, by adopting amendments to the Certificate of Formation or the By-Laws of the nonprofit corporation at a meeting of the Board of Directors of AHFC and in the case of amendments to the Certificate of Formation, delivering articles of amendment to the Secretary of State.

Article 13
Dissolution of the Corporation

If the Board of the nonprofit corporation or the Board of Directors of AHFC determines by resolution that the purposes for which the nonprofit corporation was formed have been substantially met and all debts and obligations incurred by the nonprofit corporation have been fully paid or otherwise provided for, the Board of the nonprofit corporation may request the Board of Directors of AHFC execute and deliver Articles of Dissolution to the Secretary of State which states those facts and declares the nonprofit corporation dissolved in accordance with the requirements of the Code. In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the nonprofit corporation, at any time and for any reason, all of the funds, properties and assets, including full legal title to all property of the nonprofit corporation, vests in and is conveyed to AHFC unless AHFC otherwise directs in accordance with the Code.

Article 14
AHFC Approval

On __________, 2022 the Board of Directors of AHFC duly adopted AHFC Resolution No. 2022____-AHFC___ approving the creation of the nonprofit corporation and the forms of this Certificate of Formation and the initial By-Laws.

Article 15
Construction

All references in this Certificate of Formation to statutes, regulations or other sources of legal authority refer to the authorities cited, or their successors, as they may be amended from time to time.
