

2023 City of Austin Employee Youth Camp Scholarship Program

The 2023 Youth Camp Scholarship Program is open to all regular City of Austin employees with dependent children ages 5 through 12, and older children with special needs. If you plan to apply for a scholarship for an older student with special needs, please notify the PARD Inclusion Office by phone (512) 974-3914 or email inclusion@austintexas.gov. Employees can receive up to $50 per child, per week reduction in the cost of spring and summer camp fees at City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department (PARD) camps. Payments are only made for attendance at week-long, all-day camps.

You must apply for this program by the following deadlines to be approved for funding:

Spring Break - 5 p.m., February 18, 2023

Summer Break - 5 p.m., May 2, 2023

Only dependent children of regular City of Austin Employees are eligible for this program.

Eligible children include:

- Biological children, stepchildren, legally adopted children, children for whom you have obtained court-ordered guardianship or conservatorship, and qualified children placed pending adoption.
- Dependent grandchildren must meet the requirements stated above, and must qualify as a dependent, as defined by the IRS, on your or your spouse's Federal income tax return at the time of enrollment.

Nieces, nephews, visiting grandchildren, friend's children, etc., are not eligible.

Please email your completed application to: Benefits.HRD@austintexas.gov ATTN: YCSP.

To Use Your Scholarship to pay for a Spring Break or Summer Camp:

Contact the Parks and Recreation Department center(s) after you have secured a space in the camp(s) to notify staff that you have been awarded a Youth Camp Scholarship. You must notify the center prior to the final payment deadline, or you will be responsible for the full camp fee.

Spring Break Camps require payment in full at registration

Pay for the Spring Break Camp in full to secure a space in the camp. After you register, contact the center to notify staff that you have been awarded a scholarship. They will issue a refund for the scholarship amount.

Summer Camps require full or partial payments (a 'deposit' to hold a space in camp) at registration

Make a partial payment upon initial camp registration. Make all other payments due, minus the scholarship amount ($50 per child, per week), prior to the payment deadline. Staff will apply the scholarship after the parents' portion of the class fees have been paid.

Please read and initial acknowledgment for each of the guidelines below.

I understand that Youth Camp scholarships are awarded only to regular City of Austin employees who have dependent children who have enrolled and attended all-day, weeklong City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department programs.

The above identified children meet the definition of dependent as stated below:

1. Biological children, stepchildren, legally adopted children, children for whom I have obtained court-ordered guardianship or conservatorship, and qualified children placed pending adoption.
2. Dependent grandchildren must meet the requirements stated above, and must qualify as a dependent, as defined by the IRS, on my or my spouse's Federal income tax return at the time of enrollment.
3. I may be asked to provide required documentation for dependents to verify eligibility.

The IRS has determined that certain employees may receive favorable tax treatment on funds up to $5,000 per year in dependent care assistance programs established by their employer. This $5,000 limit includes the combined funds applied to the following programs: The City of Austin Childcare Assistance Program, the City of Austin Youth Camp Scholarship Program, and Dependent Care Flexible Spending Accounts. For most employees, only the combined funding received from these programs during the calendar year which exceeds the $5,000 IRS limit will be reported to the IRS as taxable income and taxes will be withheld.
