

Two of twelve art medallions by Jill Bedgood

Jill Bedgood

Reality -Texas - Mythology, 1999

Original drawings photo-engraved on cast metal medallions
(part of the AIPP collection)

These medallions commemorate some of the myths and legends that make up part of the Texas mystique in a humorous and insightful way. Viewers are asked, in Spanish or English, about subjects such as the origins of the word “bulldogging,” the habits of the horned frog and the Barton Springs Salamander.

Associated with this series, inside the restrooms nearby, are framed etched glass mirrors with Texas hairstyles for women and big hats for men. Try one on yall.

Location: Above many of the drinking water fountains between gates 5-15
