East Airside Gallery

Four to See

Ethan Azarian, Kristen A. Fox, Rothko Hauschildt & Flip Solomon

The theme of migration comes to play when viewing these four Austin artists work. Artist Ethan Azarian's four acrylic paintings depict the ever changing demographics of Austin with color and design reminiscent of Warhol & Dali. Kristen A. Fox focuses on patterns in the swarms of birds and insects on the migration. Flip Solomon's "Wolves" touch the very soul of what we migrate to. And Rothko Hauschildt's encaustic paintings are guided by the effects of pigment, wax and oil migrating together under heat.

On display through April 26, 2016
