Green Austin, 1991

Six oil paintings on canvas
(part of the AIPP collection)

Sunlight in Austin's wilderness areas is the subject of these paintings. From the urban greenbelt to Wild Basin Wilderness Preserve, Jimmy Jalapeeno gives us a peaceful, deep look into the forest full of light, shadow, color & shape. The oil paintings are among the oldest artwork in the AIPP collection at the airport. Before coming to Austin-Bergstrom these paintings were on display at Mueller Airport until it closed in 1999.
