

Important Update

---

News from the City of Austin Development Services Department

---

Austin Build + Connect Portal Replacement Postponed

Due to technical challenges, the AB+C Portal Replacement project has been postponed. Based on final testing over the weekend, it was determined that a key feature was not operational. Development Services and other City staff are evaluating solutions and will reschedule the launch at a time that ensures minimal impact for our customers and stakeholders.

Thank you for your patience. We look forward to sharing the new portal with you soon.

---

Thank you for your continued interest in Development Services topics.

City of Austin Development Services Department

---