SUMMARY OF CHANGES

Revisions to pilot guidelines and rubric since October 2021:

- Reworked scoring rubric and guidelines language, in keeping with community feedback, Equity Office consultation, and legal guidance.

 - Minimum award amount changed from $30,000 to $70,000
 - Maximum award changed from $50,000 to $120,000

- Language added and edited in response to clarify that sponsored projects are ineligible for this program.

Program Overview

2 Year Contract Term. Approximately 30-45 contracts awarded Request amounts between $70,000 and $120,000 per year

This program seeks to address a long-term need for intentional investment to support and develop arts organizations and cultural institutions of, by, and for communities that are at immediate risk of cultural erasure and displacement within Austin and/or have been institutionally marginalized and underfunded by the City of Austin Cultural Arts Division. Through a combination of funding, peer leadership, and networking model, this program will make Austin's diverse cultures more widely visible and accessible by providing funds to sustain and grow organizations that are deeply rooted in, and reflective of those key constituencies.

To directly address historic inequities in our own funding models and meet our goals of advancing racial equity, priority will be given to arts and culture organizations that are significant contributors to the City's creative vibrancy and heritage. This may refer to arts organizations predominantly led by, and inclusive of, a combination of Black/African American, Native American, Asian, Hispanic/Latino, Middle Eastern, and Pacific Islander individuals. Organizations that also show a demonstrable commitment to serving and representing the LGBTQIA and disability communities through their work will also be considered.

Key Elements

- Thrive funds organizations that are community-centered and responsive to current social and cultural needs of Austin's diverse communities.
- Applicants who show investment from and into their communities are encouraged to apply.
- Intersectionality in proposals is encouraged.
- Thrive offers a cohort experience that includes peer leadership and networking opportunities. The goal of the cohort is to support organizations in obtaining cultural institution status.
- Successful applicants will select organization improvement goals that will become part of their contract deliverables.

Who can apply

Applicant eligibility criteria is provided in the rubric. Funding is not guaranteed. Funding will be awarded based on the amount of funding requested and application scores.

Eligible Applicants:

- 501c non-profit arts organizations that have been in operation for 5 years or more.

Priority will be given to:

- Organizations that serve and are accountable to communities that are at immediate risk of cultural erasure and displacement within Austin. This includes organizations that directly and substantively serve Black/African American, Native American, Asian, Hispanic/Latino, Middle Eastern, and Pacific Islander communities.
- Organizations that are representative of communities that experience other forms of institutional marginalization. This includes organizations that directly and substantively serve LGBTQIA and/or disability communities.
- Organizations that embody a measurable commitment to the equity goals and principles of the City of Austin's Equity Office through representation in leadership and program development.
- Applicants that have faced barriers in obtaining institutional resources and assets.
- Applicants that show a critical and timely need for meaningful investment.
- Applicants that are ready for investment to ensure long-term sustainability.

This program is not a fit for organizations that do not have long-standing relationships with the communities described above.

What Thrive Funds

All contracts funded by Hotel Occupancy Tax revenue are required to:

- Culminate in programs or events that are open and advertised to Austin residents, visitors, and tourists
- Promote and enhance the City of Austin as a cultural destination
- Occur in Austin or its extraterritorial jurisdiction (ETJ)

This program will offer additional investment in organization improvement. Examples of organization improvement include:

- Expanding public programming and audiences
- Establishing a reliable physical space for planning and presenting work
- Establishing new and/or more diversified revenue sources
- Cohort participation to advance organization improvement goals

Cohort Participation

The cohort model will:

- Center the expertise/experiences of the funded organizations
- Prioritize organizations' time and availability
- Limit burdensome reporting requirements

Cohort participants will:

1. Meet with staff: Meet with Cultural Arts Division staff within the first six months. Awardees will discuss their organization improvement goals and path to becoming a cultural institution. Additional meetings may occur as goals evolve.
The Cultural Funding programs define a "cultural institution" as an entity whose primary mission is to present and produce arts and cultural activities, has a high degree of financial sustainability, and is seen as an indispensable part of a community. It is important to note that an organization can be an indispensable part of the community but has not received the historical financial support necessary to achieve cultural institution status as defined here.
2. Receive tailored support: Attend optional trainings, networking events, and other opportunities as relevant to identified goals. Each opportunity will be developed based on interests of cohort participants. Attendance in learning opportunities is not required but will be tracked to assess the areas of improvement for the program. Community has expressed interest in the following topics, and more can be considered as requested:
 - donor cultivation
 - grant writing
 - strategic planning
 - audience development
 - lease negotiation
 - marketing
 - leadership development
3. Share expertise: Participate in peer leadership opportunities by sharing expertise with others in the cohort. Cultural Arts Division staff will also seek new ways to promote the work and expertise of the Thrive cohort to audiences within and outside of Austin.
4. Provide feedback: See "Reporting Requirements" for more details.

Reporting Requirements

Contractors will be required to submit a report annually. To ease reporting requirements, contractors will have the option to participate in conversation-based assessments and reporting with their dedicated City staff person.

Year 1: Interim Report*

The interim report will be used by CAD staff to update and revise your contract as necessary for any year two changes. Disbursement of the remaining 10% of that year's contract will not be issued without approval of the submitted interim report.

Year 2: Final Report*

A final report is due within thirty days of the final program date in year two of the contract. Workshops on how to complete your report will be made available and supporting materials can be found in the Contractor Library.

* See Additional Program Details for more detailed reporting information.

Funding Availability

Participation in this program is not guaranteed, nor is there a commitment to fund this program at previous or current levels. If the applicant applies to and is approved for funding in multiple Cultural Funding programs, they may receive only one award. Awards received from this program may not be used toward activities funded by any other City of Austin programs. Program and funding availability is subject to Hotel Occupancy Tax revenue. Only one application per organization is allowed.

Funding Timeline

Thrive operates on the calendar year, and it has a two-year cycle:

Year one: Contract start date to TBD

The program application opens to the public. Applications are reviewed for eligibility by Cultural Funding staff. Eligible and complete applications are scored during a panel review process.

Award amounts of approved applications are then determined using a funding matrix.

Payment 1: 90% of award amount can be invoiced once contract is in place

Payment 2: 10% of award amount can be invoiced upon approval of interim report

Year two: TBD

Year one awardees will receive the same award in year two, or higher (as funding allows); there is no application process in year two. An awardee can decline year two funding if they wish.

Interim reports and contract updates for year two must be approved by Cultural Funding staff before year two funds are disbursed.

The number of awards that are approved is subject to the availability of funds. Applicants will only receive points that apply to their project; we anticipate that most applications will not receive the maximum number of points available.
