Souly Austin

Redevelopment Division, City of Austin Economic Development Department

Souly Austin is a program of the City of Austin's Economic Development Department that provides a flexible set of tools and resources to assist in the formation of merchants associations that will anchor Austin's business districts. A merchants association is a group of business owners that work together to anchor and stabilize neighboring businesses by organizing around beautification efforts, marketing and promotions, business retention, and economic development activities within a commercial district. Merchants associations act as a unified voice and assist in leading and influencing positive changes in their district. <http://www.austintexas.gov/soulyatx>

Music Venue Assistance Program

Music and Entertainment Division, City of Austin Economic Development Department

The Music Venue Assistance Program (MVAP) was created to support our music industry, and to reduce sound complaints. This program offers low interest micro-loans to qualifying establishments for the purpose of enhancing the sound quality of indoor and outdoor venues, while reducing sound impact to neighboring uses. <http://www.austintexas.gov/department/venues>

ASAP: Art Space Assistance Program

Cultural Arts Division, City of Austin Economic Development Department

The Art Space Assistance Program (ASAP) provides grants to support non-profits facing permanent displacement, those previously displaced, or those facing lease renewals at substantially higher rates amidst a volatile real estate market. Grants will be made on a competitive basis with priority given to organizations confronting immediate and critical needs. <http://austintexas.gov/page/art-space-assistance-program-asap>
