HOMESTEAD EXEMPTIONS

A homestead exemption is a legal provision that can help you pay less taxes on your home. If you own and occupy your home, you may be eligible for the general homestead exemption, the age 65 or older exemption, or the disabled persons exemption offered by the City of Austin. Additional state-mandated exemptions are also available for disabled veterans, and some surviving spouses.

General Residence Homestead Exemption

The City of Austin offers the maximum allowable general homestead exemption of 20% of the assessed value of qualifying homes. In order to qualify for this exemption, the property must be owned and occupied as the owner's principal residence. Once the exemption is granted, homeowners do not need to reapply on an annual basis.

Over 65 and Disabled Persons Homestead Exemption

The City of Austin offers an additional exemption to homeowners aged 65 or older and to disabled homeowners that exempts an additional $154,000 of the assessed value of their homes from taxation by the City. Property owners already receiving a general homestead exemption who turn 65 are not required to apply for this exemption if accurate birthday information is already included in the appraisal district records. As with the general homestead exemption, homeowners do not need to reapply for these exemptions on an annual basis once granted.
