

CITY OF AUSTIN, TEXAS RECRUITMENT PROFILE

HUMAN RESOURCES CONSULTANT - DIVERSITY

GovHR USA is pleased to announce the recruitment of candidates and selection process for the next Human Resources Consultant - Diversity for the City of Austin, Texas.

About the Community

Austin, Texas has a population of 926,000, making it the 11th largest city in the country. This vibrant and dynamic city tops numerous lists for business, entertainment and quality of life. One of the country's most popular, high-profile "green" and culturally dynamic cities, Austin was selected as the "Best City for the Next Decade" (Kiplinger), the "Top Creative Center" in the US (Entrepreneur.com) and is #9, the highest-ranking employer in the government services sector on Forbes Magazine America's Best Employers list. Austin is the highest ranked employer in government services and one of four city governments ranked in the top 500.

Austin continues to lead the country with its vision of being the "Most livable City in the country," emerging as a player on the international scene with such events as South by Southwest (SXSW), Austin City Limits (ACL), Formula 1 and being home to companies such as Apple, Samsung, Dell and Seton Healthcare. From the home of state government and the University of Texas, to the "Live Music Capital of the World" and its growth as a film center, Austin has gained worldwide attention as a hub for education, business, health and sustainability.

Located at the edge of the Texas Hill Country – rolling terrain of limestone bluffs, springs, rivers and lakes – Austin's temperate climate is ideal for year-round jogging, cycling, hiking on the City's many trails or swimming at Barton Springs or one of the area's many other swimming holes. There are several excellent golf courses in the area as well as excellent opportunities for rowing, kayaking, canoeing, camping, rock climbing, disk golf, mountain biking, fishing and more. Austin has something for everyone.

About Austin City Government

The City of Austin is a progressive, dynamic, full-service municipal organization operating under the City-Manager form of government. The Austin City Council operates under a 10-1 structure whereby the Council is elected from 10 single member districts, with the Mayor at large. The Mayor and Council Members may serve their respective seat for a maximum of six years, or two consecutive terms.

The City Council appoints the City Manager who is the chief administrative and executive officer of the City. The City Council and City Manager are committed to their mission of delivering the highest quality services in the most cost-effective manner. The organization's vision is to make Austin the most livable city in the country.

About the Position – Duties and Requirements

The City of Austin Human Resources Department (HR) seeks to engage, attract, develop, support and retain the best workforce in the country to serve Austin residents. HR guides and manages employee compensation, benefits, hiring, training and labor relations.

The City has a workforce of approximately 14,000 in more than 50 departments that offer a range of services. HR offers services and assistance to the workforce and community through 18 different divisions and offices, with a staff of 118 employees and a department budget of over $16M.

The position of Human Resource Consultant – Diversity is a newly created position designed to focus on diversity and inclusion in the City's efforts to recruit a strong workforce both internally and externally. This position will focus on developing working relationships with area colleges and universities as well as developing strong marketing programs for the City of Austin. Additional focus will be on retaining talent within the organization as well as creating a resource for diversified recruitments and internship programs within the City. The ability to create a strong training programs for departments to develop initiatives to recruit and retain a culturally diverse and inclusive workforce.

Qualified individuals will be expected to have a strong background in creating culturally diverse and inclusive workplaces as well as the ability to assess the diversity of the workforce by job groups. Candidates must have a thorough knowledge of designing, developing and implementing diversity education strategies as well as comprehensive recruitment strategies in cooperation with marketing strategies. A Bachelor's Degree with major course work in Human Resources, Psychology, Business or Public Administration or related field plus four years of human resources experience in recruitment, diversity strategies and training, and/or diversity and inclusion programming.

Compensation and Benefits

The City offers a starting salary range of $56,867 - $73,653 based upon years of experience. Appointment salary DOQ/E. A comprehensive benefit package includes the City of Austin Employees Retirement System, health insurance including medical, dental, and vision coverage (also available to dependents), and life insurance.

Selection Process

Candidates should apply online immediately at <https://www.austincityjobs.org/postings/65936>. The first review of candidates will begin on April 20, 2018. Questions: contact Sarah McKee, Vice President, GovHR USA at (847) 867-5151 or smckee@govhrusa.com.

The City of Austin is committed to compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and is an Equal Opportunity Employer.