Austin-Bergstrom
International Airport

Austin-Bergstrom International Airport (AUS):

City of Austin opened Austin-Bergstrom International Airport (ABIA) in 1999, after converting the former Bergstrom Air Force Base. Massive new construction was undertaken including the modern 700,000 square feet passenger terminal named after Barbara Jordan “Texas Civil Rights Activist” and a new air-control tower. With over 4,200 acres owned by the City of Austin, two (2) wide spaced parallel runways allowing simultaneous landings and/or takeoffs. Twenty-four (24) aircraft gates and one (1) commuter gate and currently constructing a nine (9) gates expansion schedule OPENING 2019, with the soon to open South Terminal in April 2017. ABIA serviced over 11 million passengers in 2016 to 52 non-stop destinations, with 13 major Air-carriers. The campus has a Hilton hotel (273 guest rooms) with an additional Hyatt Place hotel (139 guest rooms). Over $280 million dollars in Capital Improvement are scheduled for multiple parking lot projects, a new Department of Aviation professional buildings and upgrades to make our traveling customers feel that unique “Austin, Texas Hospitality”.

The City of Austin

This vibrant and dynamic city tops numerous lists for business, entertainment and quality of life. One of the country's most popular, high-profile "green" and culturally dynamic cities, Austin was selected as the "Best City for the Next Decade" (Kiplinger), the "Top Creative Center" in the US (Entrepreneur.com) and is #1 on the "On Numbers Economic Index" as the fastest growing economy.

- Austin ranks #1 – America's Next Boom Town (Forbes, 2016)

The City of Austin

Austin continues to lead the country with its vision of being the “Most livable City in the country,” emerging as a player on the international scene with such events as SXSW, Austin City Limits, Formula 1 and being home to companies such as Apple, Samsung, Dell and Seton Healthcare. From the home of state government and the University of Texas, to the “Live Music Capital of the World” and its growth as a film center, Austin has gained worldwide attention as a hub for education, business, health and sustainability.

The City offers a wide range of events, from music concerts, food festivals and sports competitions to museum displays, exhibits and family fun. Austin is also home to a wonderful ballet, world-class museums, one-of-a-kind shopping, and beautiful outdoor spaces. You can just as easily spend your morning paddling the lake as you can strolling through a celebrated history museum.

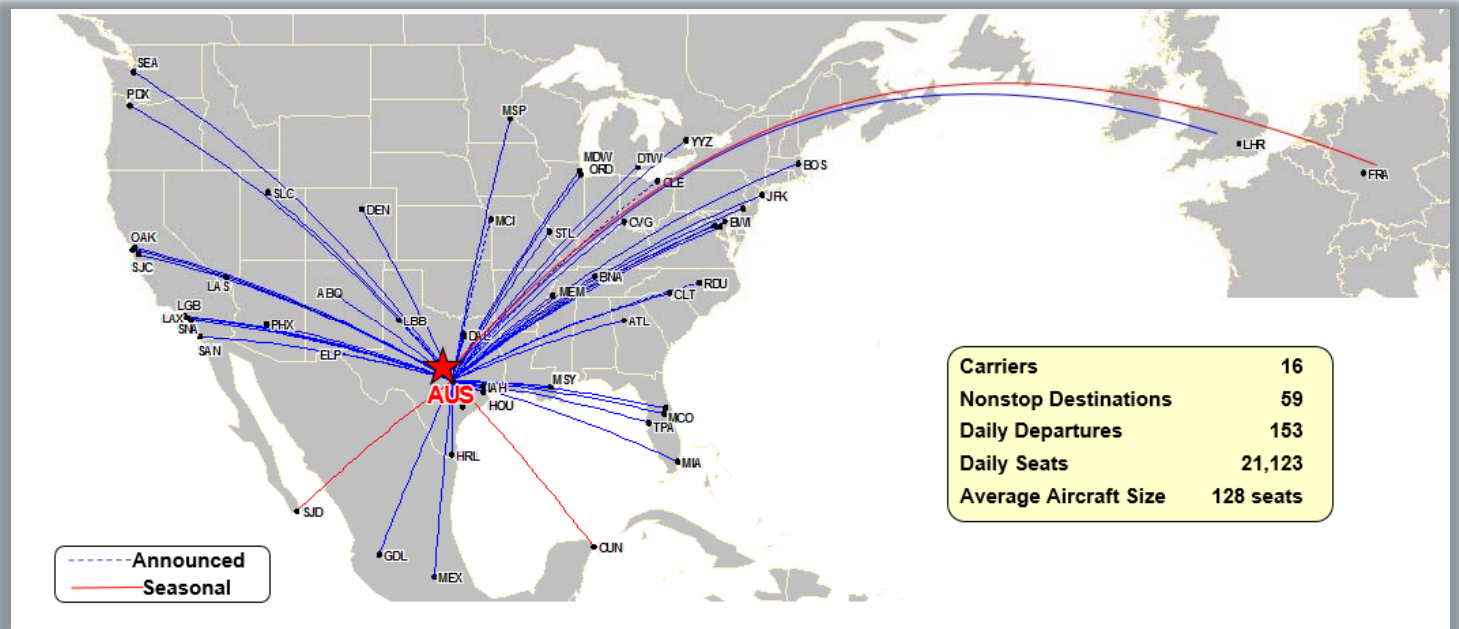

Located at the edge of the Texas Hill Country -- rolling terrain of limestone bluffs, springs, rivers and lakes -- Austin's temperate climate is ideal for year-round jogging, cycling, hiking on the City's many trails or swimming at Barton Springs or one of the area's many other swimming holes. There are a number of excellent golf courses in the area as well as excellent opportunities for rowing, kayaking, canoeing, camping, rock climbing, disk golf, mountain biking, fishing and more. Austin has something for everyone.
