

Neighborhood Housing and Community Development
Providing opportunities, changing lives

Is a Community Development Corporation right for our community?

Neighborhood Housing and Community Development invites you to join us for community information session on:

Community Development Corporations in Austin

When: Wednesday, August 15th

5:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Refreshments will be served at 5:30 pm

Where: Overton Elementary School - Cafeteria

7201 Colony Park Loop

Community Development Corporations (CDC) are non-profit organizations that work to increase opportunities within a specific community through engaging in residential and commercial development, providing community oriented programs and services, encouraging community leadership, and an overall commitment to enhancing the quality of life for all community residents.

This information session will be led by a panel of local Austin Community Development Corporation directors, founders, and consultants.

Learn about the process of establishing a Community Development Corporation, first-hand lessons from experienced CDC leaders, and engage in dialogue with CDC professionals and your fellow community members.

RSVPs requested to Jessi Koch at colonypark@austintexas.gov or (512) 974-3184.

¿Le gustaría obtener más información sobre
Corporación de Desarrollo Comunitario?
Llámenos para solicitar servicios de interpretación
en la lengua española para la sesión informativa.

The City of Austin is committed to compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Reasonable modifications and equal access to communications will be provided upon request. Funding is provided through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the City of Austin.