

Alan Bojorquez
Bojorquez Law Firm, PC
12325 Hymeadow Drive, Suite 2-100
512-250-0411
alan@texasmunicipallawyers.com

Alan represents home-rule and general-law municipalities across the state. Prior to going into private practice, Alan served as a staff attorney for the Texas Municipal League.

While earning his Juris Doctorate and Master of Public Administration degrees at Texas Tech University, Alan interned for the City of Lubbock, the City of Garland, and the firm of Lloyd Gosselink, et al. Alan routinely conducts training for city officials on Ethics, Personnel, Open Government and Land Use.

Achievements:

- Texas State Chairperson, International Municipal Lawyers Association.
- Author of the Texas Municipal Law and Procedure Manual (5th Edition).
- Texas City Attorneys Association Board of Directors
- Recipient of IMLA President's Award for Most Outstanding State Chairperson.
- Awarded Merit Certification in Municipal Law by the Texas City Attorney Association.
- Delivered successful oral argument before the Texas Third Court of Appeals in a matter seeking to overturn an annexation by the Village of Salado.
- Served as lead counsel for the City of Georgetown in its successful Texas Supreme Court challenge of an Attorney General's Open Records Decision.
- Featured speaker and planning committee member for the University of Texas School of Law Land Use Planning Law Conferences.
- Outstanding Alumnus, Master of Public Administration (MPA) Program, Texas Tech University (2005).
- College of Texas State Bar recognition for commitment to continuing legal education.