

MLK Station Neighborhood Park

Community Meeting #2
March 27, 2021

Zoom Meeting Chat

00:35:37 Bryan Parsons: Glad to have this project moving forward ! Lots of new families joining neighborhood

00:42:00 Lindsey Stringer: Same here

00:46:24 Corey Pudhorodsky: Question: Are you planning on keeping the bottle/metal/bamboo structure that was built by the UT students?

00:46:47 PARD Melody Alcazar: Darcy will speak to that structure shortly!

00:48:22 Randy Way: How far north will bank restoration take place within the design area?

00:50:13 Jeffrey Schwartz: did we confirm/know who that shed belongs to?

00:52:17 Lindsey Stringer: Happy to hear it may get installed this year

00:52:39 May Taylor: Will basic park amenities like bike racks and trash cans be included as part of phase 1?

00:53:23 Corey Pudhorodsky: There's currently a lot of puddling of water in one section of the park, will that be leveled?

00:53:45 Corey Pudhorodsky: ... to help with drainage?

00:53:50 Bryan Parsons: Is the creek Crossing to be improved soon? There are some dangerous rod sticking up in the wood steps that are deteriorating. Thanks

00:55:26 Jennifer Potter-Miller: Has PARD resolved concerns about safety of natural materials (which will degrade over time)? I'm glad! But know this used to be a worry.

00:55:31 Lindsey Stringer: There are multiple rebar pieces sticking up there

00:57:14 Bryan Parsons: Thanks

00:57:21 Corey Pudhorodsky: I can take some pictures after the next rain of the puddling for you

00:57:46 Corey Pudhorodsky: yep

00:58:00 Corey Pudhorodsky: Anything else we can do to help at this point?

00:58:23 Jennifer Potter-Miller: Thanks! So great!

00:58:58 Jennifer Potter-Miller: Is there an adopt a park group we can get involved with?

00:59:27 Corey Pudhorodsky: We also have a google group for the neighborhood for this park.

00:59:48 Corey Pudhorodsky: <https://groups.google.com/g/mlk-station-16th-street-neighborhood-park>

01:00:05 Lindsey Stringer: Gerard in our neighborhood supports creek clean up

01:00:06 JD Lewis: Thank you for organizing this, and it will be wonderful to see site work beginning soon-ish!

01:00:49 Jennifer Steverson: Thank you

01:00:55 Corey Pudhorodsky: Thank you Melody and Darcy!
