

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify)

Programming - ~~to~~ NON-

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building?

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

2 PARD Aquatic Division location: To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community.

1 Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities: To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.

4 Space for Nonprofits: To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.

3 Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs: Please write your suggested use below:

4. Additional Comments:

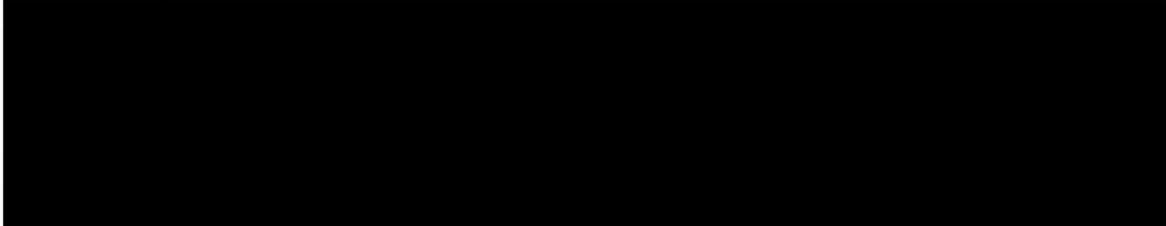

CULTURAL ARTS

10,000

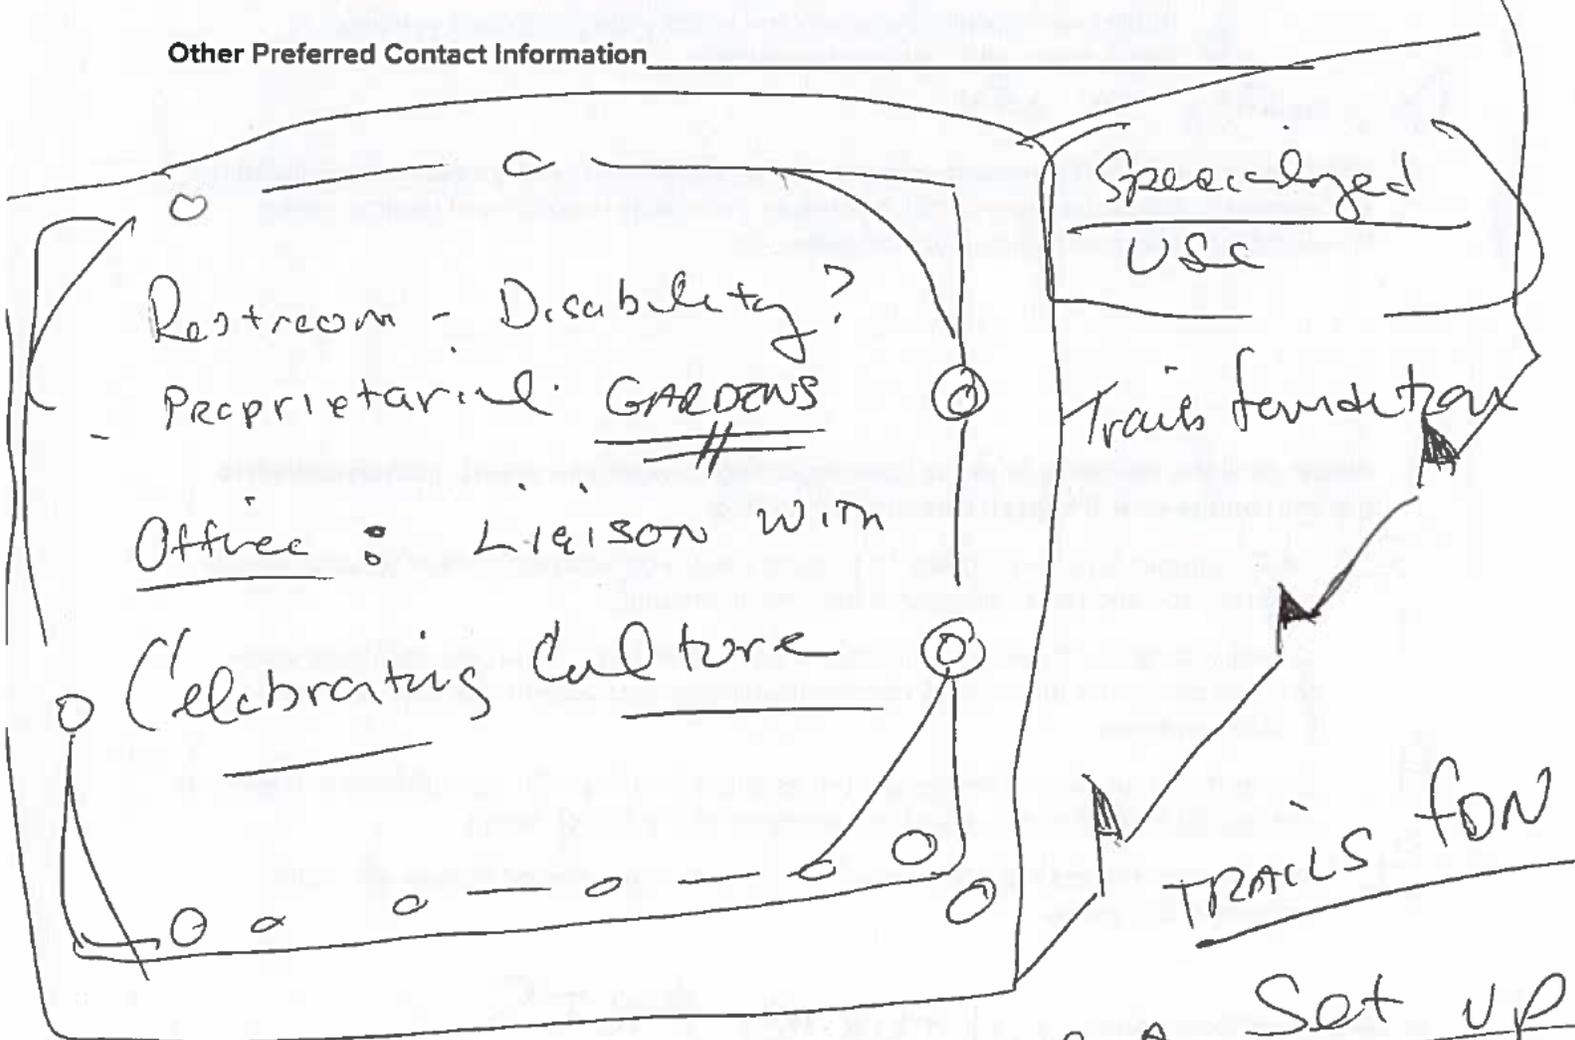

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

Other Preferred Contact Information

The benefits of punctuality:
No rehashing

This is a Set up
That's all they do! we just have to get as much as we can. A-Holes

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify)

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building? Some programming that isn't at any location in the park already. Sustainable gardening, for example. Or performance arts.

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

- 1. Historic
- 2. Cultural
- 3. Green Living
- 4. Community Facility.
- 5. PARO presence. (Rangers)

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

2 PARO Aquatic Division location: To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community.

1 Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities: To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.

4 Space for Nonprofits: To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.

3 Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs: Please write your suggested use below:

3) Programming in Sustainable / Green Living or performance.

4. Additional Comments: arts of a cultural nature. Community meeting space please.

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

Other Preferred Contact Information _____

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify)

The new library provides a beautiful space for everyone to enjoy - reading, lounging, etc. Nash could provide similar exp.

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building?

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

Education - healthy environment, clean water, recycling, recycle center, etc
Adults/Kids - keeping our natural resources beautiful for all to enjoy

Row center, park/lake information center
Art/crafts/food - rotating vendors

Dive training center for Parks & for the community

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

- PARD Aquatic Division location: To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community. Yes, but allow anyone access, even if they pay a fee to learn
- Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities: To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.
- Space for Nonprofits: To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.
- Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs: Please write your suggested use below:

→ with so many new residences coming in at RBJ, how will that impact plans for Nash?

4. Additional Comments:

Looking forward to Meeting #2
Thank you for providing a space & time to hear our input!

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

Other Preferred Contact Information _____

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify) non-profit space

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building?

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

a positive use for this special, underutilized space

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

3 PARD Aquatic Division location: To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community.

2 Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities: To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.

1 Space for Nonprofits: To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.

Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs: Please write your suggested use below:

4. Additional Comments:

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

Other Preferred Contact Information _____

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify)

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building?

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

PARD Aquatic Division location: To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community.

Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities: To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.

Space for Nonprofits: To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.

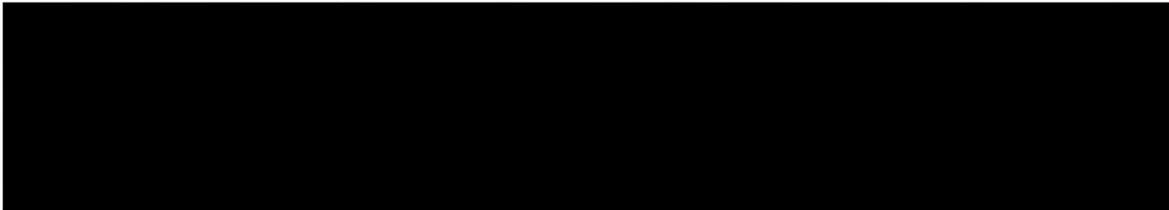

Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs: Please write your suggested use below:

4. Additional Comments:

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

Other Preferred Contact Information _____

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify)

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building?

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

- PARD Aquatic Division location:* To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community.
- Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities:* To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.
- Space for Nonprofits:* To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.
- Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs:* Please write your suggested use below:

4. Additional Comments:

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

Other Preferred Contact Information _____

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify)

recreation activities for local population

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building?

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

targeting local needs and restricting larger city innovation

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

PARD Aquatic Division location: To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community.

Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities: To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.

Space for Nonprofits: To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.

Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs: Please write your suggested use below:

4. Additional Comments:

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

[Redacted contact information]

Other Preferred Contact Information _____

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify)

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building?

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

Use this abandoned space for benefit of community and trail.

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

No PARD Aquatic Division location: To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community.

2 Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities: To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.

1 Space for Nonprofits: To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.

No Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs: Please write your suggested use below:

4. Additional Comments:

More than one use is possible!

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

Name _____

Email _____

Other Preferred Contact Information _____

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Community Meeting Feedback Form

November 21, 2019

Thank you for attending the community gathering today. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is seeking input on the following questions to help guide the next steps in the rehabilitation of the Nash Hernandez Building. The questions can also be completed online at www.publicinput.com/6064 or text NASH to (512) 580-8850.

The Holly Shores / Edward Rendon Sr. Metropolitan Park at Festival Beach Master Plan ("Master Plan") can be viewed online at www.austintexas.gov/hollyshores.

1. Based on the guidance from the Master Plan, what vision does the community have for the Nash Hernandez Building? (circle as many as you would like)

- a. Community Meeting and Dining Space
- b. Commercial Learning and Demonstration Kitchen
- c. Publicly-accessible restrooms and healthy food and drink vending
- d. Other community use (please specify)

No A&E Aquatic office. Use

2. What values does the community want to see embodied in the Nash Hernandez Building?

For example: Honoring history of neighborhood, Promoting nutrition and healthy eating, Providing education and training opportunities, etc.

3. Please rank the following possible uses according to what you see as most beneficial to the community near the Nash Hernandez Building.

0 None
PARD Aquatic Division location: To provide a more centralized location to support pool maintenance and recruit lifeguards from the community.

0 None
Community Space for meeting, dining, or other activities: To provide additional space that can be reserved for use by community members or organizations. Reservation fee may be assessed.

1
Space for Nonprofits: To be designated as space for nonprofit organizations to lease and use according to the contractual requirements of the City of Austin.

1
Other use consistent with the Master Plan or Community needs: Please write your suggested use below:

4. Additional Comments:

Nash Hernandez Building at Festival Beach

Stay connected

If you would like to stay connected to future communications regarding the Nash Hernandez Building or other projects in the area, please share your contact information. This information will not be shared publicly, and will not be connected to your responses on the other side of the paper.

Name _____

Email _____

Other Preferred Contact Information _____