

Would You Like to Volunteer with us?

The Austin Parks and Recreation Department is always seeking volunteers to help us fulfill our mission to serve the Austin community. We encourage you to donate your time, talent and energy to the community by becoming one of our treasured volunteers.

We invite individuals, community groups and business groups to partner with us in keeping Austin one of the best cities to live in the world. We have an array of possible volunteer opportunities [open space areas, recreation centers, summer and after school programs, tutoring, sports coaches, dance instructors, senior programs, computer lessons, nature based programs, cultural centers, museums, and more].

We pledge that we will do our best to find a volunteer opportunity that fits your preference and plans. We want to make it as easy as possible for you to join our volunteer team.

As a first step, please e-mail the following information to: joe.washington@austintexas.gov
We will contact you asap and start working toward making you or your group part of our volunteer program.

Please Email:

- 1) Name
- 2) Phone number(s) and best time to reach you
- 3) Are you seeking group or individual opportunities?
- 4) A short summary of your interest / ideas (we'll talk more about this)

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with us.
