

Residential Development and Trees

A tree permit is required when the canopy or roots of a protected size tree will be impacted by proposed work. Below are examples of when a tree permit may be needed:

A protected size tree measures 19 inches and greater in diameter at 4.5 feet from the ground

To learn more, or to download a permit application, please visit

<http://www.austintexas.gov/department/city-arborist>

