

RE-OPENING!

PARD SENIOR TRANSPORTATION

We are excited to announce the re-opening of the City of Austin's Parks & Recreation Senior Transportation! We know it has been a long time of persisting through this pandemic, but we are grateful to have the opportunity to open back up to assist you with your transportation needs. As of now we are assisting with transportation for personal errands and medical appointments for registered patrons.

We hope this is just the beginning of safe steps in coming back to a form of normalcy and are excited to see you all again very soon.
